To the Friends of Union and Liberty:

Enough is known of army operations within the last five days to claim our especial gratitude to God. While what remains undone demands our most sincere prayers to and reliance upon Him, (without whom all human effort is vain,) I recommend that all patriots at their homes, in their places of public worship, and wherever they may be, unite in common thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God. Abraham Lincoln.

DISPATCHES FROM THE WAR-OFFICE.

FIRST DISPATCH.

The General Result a Success—The Fighting Desperate—The Cool, Determined Courage of the Army—The Death of Gen. Wadsworth—Gen. Sherman Heard From.

Washington, Monday, May 9—10:45 A. M.

Maj.-Gen. Dix:

We have intelligence this morning by scouts direct from the army, as late as Saturday evening, but no official reports.

The general results may be stated as a success to our arms.

The fighting on Friday was the most desperate known in modern times.

I deeply regret that the country will have to mourn the death of that accomplished soldier, Brig.-Gen. Wadsworth, who was struck in the forehead by a ball, at the head of his command, while leading them against one of the enemy's strongest positions. His remains are in our hands, in charge of Col. Sharpe.

Gen. Webb was wounded.

Gen. Jones, of the rebel army, was killed.

The condition of our army is represented to be most admirable. The cool, determined courage, in every instance, proved too much for the desperate fury of the rebels, who have been driven at all points. There has been no straggling.

At the last accounts Hancock was pushing forward rapidly by the left to Spottsylvania Court-house, and yesterday heavy cannonading was heard at Aquia Creek from that direction, until 3 o'clock.

We have lost some prisoners.

One regiment, the Seventh Pennsylvania Reserves, charged through an abattis of the enemy, but were unable to get back, and most of them were captured. We have also taken a large number of prisoners, supposed to be more than we lost.

The wounded had not yet arrived at the point whence the trains were to receive them. The Medical Director reports that a large proportion are slight wounds.

Artillery was not used on either side the first two days.

There is nothing later from Gen. Butler than the date of my last dispatch.

Gen. Sherman was heard from last night. He had been all day reconnoitering the enemy's position and would attack to-day. EDWIN M. STANTON.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Lee's Report of the Battle—Gen. Jenkins Killed—Longstreet, Pegram and Stafford Wounded.

[OFFICIAL.]

Washington, Monday, May 9.

To Maj.-Gen. Dix:

This Department has just received from Gen. Butler the official report of Gen. Lee of the operations of Friday. He says their loss in killed is not large, but they have many wounded. He grieves to announce that Gen. Longstreet was severely wounded, Gen. Jenkins killed, and Gen. Pegram badly wounded on Thursday, and that it is supposed that Gen. Stafford will recover. He thanks a merciful God that every advance on their (Gen. Grant's) part has been repulsed. He states that our forces attacked them, and caused some confusion. Gen. Wadsworth's body fell into their hands, but our reports this morning state that it is now in our possession under charge of Col. Sharpe, as stated in my first dispatch this morning.

The belief here is that Lieut.-Gen. Grant is achieving a complete victory.

EDWIN M. STANTON,

THIRD DISPATCH.

Gen. Grant "On to Richmond"—Capture of Two Thousand Prisoners.

Washington, May 9—4 o'clock P. M.

Maj.-Gen. Dix:

Dispatches have just reached here direct from Gen. Grant. They are not fully deciphered yet, but he is "On to Richmond."

We have taken two thousand prisoners.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

FOURTH DISPATCH.

Lee Retreats Friday Night—Grant's Pursuit on Saturday—Hancock Passes Through Spottsylvania Court-House on Sunday Morning—Headquarters Twenty Miles from the Battle-field on Sunday—Occupation of Fredericksburgh—Depot for the Wounded Established There.

Washington, Monday, May 9—4 P. M.

A bearer of dispatches from Gen. Meade's headquarters has just reached here. He states that Lee's army commenced falling back on the night of Friday. Our army commenced the pursuit on Saturday. The rebels were in full retreat for Richmond by the direct road. Hancock passed through Spottsylvania Court-house at daylight yesterday. Our headquarters at noon yesterday were twenty miles south of the battle field. We occupy Fredericksburgh. The Twenty-second New-York Cavalry occupied that place at 8 o'clock last night. The depot for our wounded is established at Fredericksburgh.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE N. Y. TIMES

The Defeat of the Enemy Complete—The Death of Gen. Wadsworth—Gen. Webb not Killed—The Wounded not yet Received at Rappahannock Station.

Washington, Monday, May 9.

Intelligence received this morning is of the most cheering character, modified only by individual cases of national bereavement. The rout of the enemy's forces is complete. They are flying in a demoralized condition toward the intrenchments at Richmond, leaving their killed and wounded in our hands. Victory is complete.

Our loss is very heavy. Among the brave men who are lost is Gen. Wadsworth, of New-York. He was killed while charging at the head of his division by a ball through the brain. The rebel Gen. Sam. Jones was killed, and his body is in our hands.

Gen. Webb is not killed, as reported.

The bridges on the railroad as far as Rappahannock Station have been guarded during all this movement by small detachments, and there has been uninterrupted telegraphic communication between Rappahannock and Alexandria until 9 o'clock last night.

The telegraph is in operation this A. M. Not a single wounded man had reached Rappahannock Station at last accounts. Six trains of empty cars went to the front yesterday morning, and more will follow as soon as they begin to load.

The Operations of Saturday—Heavy Skirmishing—Lee's Retreat—The Army in Vigorous Pursuit—Our Loss 1,800 Killed, 10,000 Wounded.

Washington, Monday—2 P. M.

Reliable information from the front up to 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon states that on Saturday morning Gen. Grant opened the fight by a general advance of his pickets and skirmishers. During the whole day there was very heavy skirmishing, amounting sometimes to a severe musketry battle; and it was during one of these that the gallant Wadsworth was killed at the head of his division. Lee retreated in the direction of Spottsylvania Court-House, and it was reported from the front on Sunday morning that Gen. Hancock was in occupation of that place. Gen. Grant's whole army was in vigorous pursuit. Our loss is reported at about 1,800 killed and 10,000 wounded. The order for sending the wounded to Washington has been rescinded, and other arrangements will be made.

WASHINGTON REPORTS.

Dispatches from Grant and Meade—The Pursuit of the Enemy—The Capture of Two Thousand Prisoners.

Washington, Monday, May 9.

Dispatches from Gen. Meade and Lieut.-Gen. Grant have just been received by the War Department.

Our army was in full pursuit of the enemy toward Richmond.

We have two thousand prisoners.

Our forces occupied Fredericksburgh at 8 o'clock last night.

The hospital for our wounded was established there.

The supplies, nurses, physicians and attendants have been ready for two days, and have gone forward.

The wounded are now estimated at about twelve thousand.

Reported Battle on Sunday—Lee's Report of the Battle of Thursday.

Washington, Monday, May 9.

The Republican Extra says: "There is reason to believe, from dispatches already received since our first extra to-day, that Lee was forced to fight at Spottsylvania on Sunday, and was again repulsed and compelled to retreat.

Another statement is that Gen. Grant had flanked him and got between the rebel army and Richmond.

Lee's report of the battle of Thursday last, published in the Richmond papers, has been telegraphed to this city by Gen. Butler. Lee says that Gen. Grant attacked him, which contradicts the report received here that Lee made the attack upon our army. Lee employs this language, "Thank God we have repulsed the attacks of the enemy." He states that Longstreet is badly wounded.

Lee says nothing in his report about the fight on Friday.

Dispatches state Gen. Butler is still holding the line of railroad between Petersburgh and Richmond, preventing Beauregard from reinforcing Lee.

Richmond and Petersburgh Not Evacuated—Gen. Hancock in Vigorous Pursuit of Lee—The Casualties.

Washington, Monday, May 9.

The Star publishes an extra this evening, saying:

There is no foundation for the report that the rebels are evacuating Richmond, nor that Petersburgh is evacuated.

The following is a list of the casualties, so far as received at the present time:

Brig.-Gen. Alexander Hays, of Pennsylvania, killed.

Brig.-Gen. James S. Wadsworth, of New-York, killed.

Brig.-Gen. Webb, of New-York, wounded.

Col. Wilson, of the Forty-third New-York, wounded.

Col. Stone, of the Second Vermont, wounded.

Col. Lewis, of the Third Vermont, wounded.

Col. Stone, of the Pennsylvania Bucktails, injured by a fall from his horse.

Col. West, of the Ninth Maine, killed.

Lieut.-Col. Tyler, wounded.

Lieut.-Col. West, wounded.

Major Dorlin, of the Forty-ninth New-York, wounded.

Major Darlington, of the Eighteenth Pennsylvania, wounded.

At the latest dates received by the War Department, Gen. Hancock was rapidly pushing by the left to Spottsylvania Court-house. Heavy cannonading was heard from that direction, yesterday, at Aquia Creek.

An official report of Gen. Lee to the rebel authorities at Richmond, transmitted by Gen. Butler to the War Department, states that the rebel loss in killed is not large, but that many are wounded.

Gen. Lee also states that he regrets to say that Gen. Longstreet is dangerously wounded; also, that Gen. Pegram and Stafford are wounded, and that Gen. Jenkins is killed.

Gen. Jones is also killed and his body is reported to be in our possession.

The Result of Friday's Fighting Very Advantageous—Lee Falling Back—He Leaves his Dead and Wounded in our Hands.

Washington, Monday, May 9.

The extra Star says:

"Reports from the front, not official, by parties that left there on Saturday, are to the effect that the result of the fighting on Friday was yet more advantageous to the Union cause than that of Thursday, resulting in Lee's falling back, according to some reports, twelve miles, leaving his dead and wounded in our hands.

Grant, according to the same report, has a field full of prisoners, and had advanced to Spottsylvania Court-house.

A verbal message received at Gen. Halleck's headquarters, by a messenger from the Army of the Potomac, is to the effect that the battle closed on Friday, the enemy having fallen back about twelve miles, leaving his dead and wounded on the field.

On Saturday, at 3 o'clock, Lee's army was in full retreat through Spottsylvania, and when the messenger left, Gen. Hancock was entering the place in pursuit.

We have captured many prisoners, but the number is not known.

Gen. Wadsworth is reported killed, and Gen. Webb wounded.

Gen. Butler is reported to be within ten miles of Richmond. This information comes by a boat from Alexandria, passengers from there reporting the arrival of parties from Grant's army with news to that effect.

Parties in Alexandria County yesterday heard firing, as from heavy siege guns, in the direction of Spottsylvania Court-house, from 11 A. M. until 1 P. M. The distance is over sixty miles, but the day was quiet and the wind from the southwest, making it not improbable that the firing was from the battle going on yesterday between Grant and Lee.

Owing to the fact of the Rappahannock bridge being out of repair, the order directing that the wounded be brought to Washington has been countermanded for the present.

LATER.

Washington, Monday, April 9—noon.

A messenger who left the front of the Army of the Potomac at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, reports that Gen. Hancock was then at Spottsylvania Court-house, pursuing the rebels, who were retreating in good order by two roads.

From the Field of Battle—The Fighting of Friday—The Desperate Character of the Battle-Ground.

Old Wilderness Tavern,
Friday, May 6—9 P. M.
Via Washington, Sunday, May 8—Midnight.

Our correspondent with the Army of the Potomac sends us the following:

The most terrific battle yet fought closed to-day. Lee's entire army has made repeated and furious assaults upon our right and left wings, commanded by Hancock and Sedgwick, with temporary successes, but has been driven back with great slaughter.

An attack was made about 4 o'clock this afternoon, simultaneously, upon our whole line, which was gallantly repulsed.

Toward dark the enemy concentrated upon our extreme right and fell suddenly upon Sedgwick, crushing in a portion of his line.

Gen. Sedgwick succeeded in reforming his line and securing it against further disaster, and the enemy withdrew from his front under cover of the darkness.

Our losses have been heavy.

Our army to-day has certainly achieved a decided success. It has baffled all the offensive efforts of the enemy.

The almost impenetrable woods with which the battle-ground is covered saved the rebels from a crushing defeat, as it enabled them to conceal their movements almost perfectly until the very moment of their execution.

The number of our wounded is estimated at from 6,000 to 8,000.

They have been forwarded to Rappahannock Station, and thence to the Washington hospitals.

I will send a detailed account by the next train.

THE VERY LATEST.

Gen. Ingalls telegraphs from the Old Wilderness Tavern, at 11½ A. M. on Saturday, that "the enemy are said to be retiring."

Gen. Butler has sent a dispatch from Bermuda Hundreds, saying that he has made a demonstration against the railroad between Petersburgh and Richmond, and has succeeded, after some pretty severe fighting, in breaking the communication.

Gen. Beauregard is in command of the rebel forces at Petersburgh and Richmond.

This authentic account disposes of the statement that the rebels have burned Petersburgh after evacuating it.

[The foregoing dispatch is a special one to the Boston Advertiser.]

PHILADELPHIA REPORTS.

The Advance on Saturday—Casualties—Longstreet Fatally Wounded.

Philadelphia, Monday, May 9.

The following is bulletined here:

Headquarters Army of the Potomac,
Saturday Evening.

At noon to-day our skirmishers advanced and formed, and found that Lee had retreated. Lieut.-Gen. Grant pushed out strong picket forces on all the avenues leading westward, and resumed his original plan of campaign.

Gen. Hancock's corps is now at Spottylvania Courthouse.

The Evening Telegraph has the following list of killed and wounded:

Col. Woodward, son of Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania, killed.

Col. Carroll, of the 95th Pennsylvania, killed.

Col. Gwynne, of the 118th Pennsylvania, wounded in the leg.

Maj. Darlington of the 18th Penn., killed.

Capt. Briggs, of the 11th Pennsylvania, wounded in the thigh.

Capt. Byrnes, of the 2d Penn., captured.

Gen. Longstreet was shot by a bullet in the neck and is stated to be mortally wounded.

The following is a special dispatch to the Evening Telegraph:

Washington, Monday, May 9.

The telegraph is working to Rappahannock Station. Up to 5 o'clock this morning none of our wounded had arrived there. This creates surprise, and many rumors are in circulation in consequence.

Communications have been opened with Gens. Smith and Gillmore, who are near Richmond, and have been fighting.

It may be that some of our wounded have been sent to the York River.

There was no fighting yesterday, and our army is believed to be advancing successfully.

Fredericksburgh has been occupied, and the railroad is being repaired.

Mrs. Gen. Meade has received a dispatch from her husband, dated Saturday, stating that "We are all well."

GEN. BUTLER'S ARMY.

THE BATTLE NEAR PETERSBURGH.

The Demonstration Against Petersburgh—A Severe Engagement on Saturday—Col. Barton's Brigade Destroys the Railroad—Beauregard in Command—Capture of the Gunboat Shoshone.

From Our Special Correspondent.

Bermuda Hundred, Va.,
Saturday Evening, May 7, 1864.

I was in error in my last night's letter in saying that the Petersburgh and Richmond Railroad had been tapped by Gen. Heckman at its junction with the City Point branch. The information was brought to me, and I unfortunately used it without stopping to seek proof of its truth. Such a thing could not have been done without first visiting Petersburgh, as the City Point branch starts from that place. What the gallant Heckman really did was, to advance, by order of Gen. Smith, with his brigade, (the First of Weitzel's division,) for the purpose of feeling the rebel position. He moved out on the Petersburgh road until he came to the enemy, whom he found posted upon the Port Walthall branch railroad. A lively skirmish followed, and it was apparent that the rebels were in strong force. They had no artillery, which fact gave us the advantage, and Heckman, after a lively musketry fire, succeeded in driving them off the railroad. The rebels brought two brigades of infantry into action, and at times the fighting was at such close quarters that they could be heard calling out to our men, "You are cowards to use artillery! Wait until to-morrow and we will pay you off." As Gen. Heckman had received orders not to bring on an engagement, he retired. The brilliant little affair lasted about an hour, and resulted in a loss to us of eight killed and sixty wounded.

Dr. Suckley, Medical Director of the Eighteenth Corps, established a hospital at the house of a rebel named Strong, which is delightfully situated on a bluff commanding a splendid view of the opposite side. Here the wounded were removed, and received excellent care. Following is a list of the names:

Edward Rahn, Co. G, 25th Mass., knee.
Leveret Clark, Co. H, 27th Massachusetts, arm.
Corp. Lorenzo R. Lovell, Co. H, 27th Mass., shoulder.
Michael Coughlan, Co. G, 25th Mass., knee.
William Ward, Co. G, 9th New-Jersey, abdomen.
William Lamb, Co. G, 25th Mass., finger.
James Rent, Co. E, 9th New-Jersey, leg.
Absalom Howe, Co. K, 9th New-Jersey, arm.
J. Q. Stearns, Co. K, 9th New-Jersey, arm.
John Jennings, Co. E, 9th New-Jersey, hand.
Francis Barnes, Co. I, 26th Mass., hand.
Frederick Weisser, Co. G, 25th Mass., hand.
Casth. Barman, Co. I, 25th Massachusetts, hand.
Charles L. Nye, Co. E, 27th Massachusetts, arm.
Newton Wallace, Co. I, 27th Massachusetts, face.
William Gillom, Co. E, 9th New-Jersey, thigh.
A. Gillmore, Co. F, 27th Massachusetts, leg.
Lafayette Smith, Co. A, 27th Mass., shoulder.
Nathan Nixon, Co. F, 25th Massachusetts, head.
J. B. Gaston, Co. K, 9th New-Jersey, thigh.
Corp. C. D. Gunn, Co. G, 25th Mass., head.
C. D. Toldy, Co. E, 9th New-Jersey, shoulder.
D. R. Bruce, Co. K, 27th Mass., abdomen.
George A. Draper, Co. D, 27th Mass., abdomen.
John Q. Irvin, Co. H, 27th Mass., scrotum.
Henry McCombs, Co. E, 27th Mass., both thighs legs and scrotum.
Frank Akar, Co. B, 9th New-Jersey, shoulder.
Wm. Mies, Co. E, 9th New-Jersey, leg amputated.
Ben. Yeager, Co. A, 9th New-Jersey, leg amputated.
Henry J. Pulsifer, Co. G, 27th Mass., thigh.
James S. Sickles, Co. E, 9th New-Jersey, thigh.
Henry Pittinger, Co. G, 25th Mass., abdomen; died in hospital.
John Munch, Co. E, 9th New-Jersey, head; died in hospital.
Thomas Sales, Co. D, 9th New-Jersey, neck; died in hospital.
Edwin Wilbur, Co. H, 25th Mass., hand, slight.
Frederick Brander, Co. G, 9th N. J., right arm.
David S. Giles, Co. K, 9th New-Jersey, leg.
John H. Loges, Co. B, 9th New-Jersey, arm.
John Edmonds, Co. H, 9th N. J., contusion right breast.

This morning the enemy paid us their compliments, both on the river and land. About ten o'clock, a battery of field artillery came down from Richmond on the north bank of the river, and popped away at the naval vessels, which were fishing for torpedoes near Turkey Bend. The small gunboat Shoshonee, a purchased vessel, technically known as a "pasteboard" boat, was some distance in advance of the others. The second shot from the rebel battery exploded the gunboat's boiler, and she surrendered. A few of the crew jumped overboard and swam to the opposite bank of the river, where they found shelter until the other boats came up and drove the impertinent rebels away. The men report that the explosion of the boiler injured no one on board, and that all the officers of the boat were taken prisoners. Admiral Lee kept up a vigorous shelling of the woods for some time after the rebels were driven away.

The fight on shore began about the same time as the affair on the James River. Anticipating the attack, a plan was formed by our side having the object of advancing upon the Petersburgh and Richmond Railroad to destroy it. Five brigades were organized, and marched in three columns to meet the enemy. Heckman's brigade again went out on the left, and three brigades, under Gen. Brooks, were assigned to the centre. These forces were designated to engage the enemy at the position which he held yesterday in the encounter with Heckman, and divert his attention while the column on the right advanced to the railroad near Chester Station. The day being excessively warm, it seemed to me almost impossible that any fighting could be done until the cool of the evening. But the rebels did not allow the heat to trouble them, and by 11 o'clock A. M., having received their artillery during the night, they opened fire briskly on our advancing columns, from about the point whence they had been driven last evening. Our men replied splendidly and in a short time the engagement on the left and centre became general. We could now and then hear the arrival of the trains both from Petersburgh and Richmond, which prisoners told us brought down reinforcements. They also said that Gen. Beauregard had come up from Charleston with troops some days since, and was then commanding the forces in front. While the left and centre were engaged, for the most part in artillery practice, the right column, consisting of one brigade commanded by Col. Barton, of the Forty-eighth New-York, hurried forward upon a road leading to the Petersburgh Railroad near Chester Station, where also is the junction of the Port Walthall road. Here they set a bridge on fire and destroyed the track for some distance, but being savagely pressed by the enemy, the order was given to retire. The damage to the road, I believe, is not thought to be very great. The fighting continued with unwavering vigor on both sides until 4 o'clock, when the rebels were reported to be falling back. After following them some distance an order was given for our troops to return to the line held in the morning.

The casualties of the day I have been unable to learn. Our loss is reported, however, not to have been very serious. Most of the wounds are from fragments of shells. Twelve or fifteen officers are reported to have been killed or wounded—among the latter Col. Dandy, of the 100th New-York, whose injuries are said to be slight. Gen. Heckman's horse was killed, and a ball tore his glove, grazing his hand. I picked up the names of a few of the wounded:

Aaron A. Brown, Co. F, 9th New-Jersey—shoulder, by piece of shell.
John E. Kelley, Co. A, 9th New-Jersey—ankle.
Wm. Harmon, Co. F, 9th New-Jersey—arm and thigh, by shell.
Cornelius Van Ness, Co. G, 9th New-Jersey—head, mortally.
Corp. Woodhull, Co. F, 9th New-Jersey—side, by shell.
Lieut. Frederick K. Hobert, Co. G, 9th New-Jersey—thigh.

The following named soldiers were sun-struck: Edmund Boese, Co. C, 27th Mass.; Casper Heisler, Co. H, 27th Mass.; Frederick Williams, Co. A, 27th Mass.; Wm. Saxon, Co. C, 27th Mass.

The position of our forces here is considered impregnable. If we cannot get out of the Peninsula which contains us, it is certain that the rebels cannot get in. The natural defences of the place are perfect, leaving little to be done in the way of intrenching, and the gunboats are depended on to keep the river open to Hampton Roads. We are very anxious to hear from Grant, but beyond the knowledge of a battle having commenced near Chancellorsville, have nothing definite. A negro refugee from Richmond came to us to-day, reporting that Lee and Ricketts had both been seriously wounded.

We hear nothing from our cavalry expedition under Kuntz. It is thought that he was too late to cut the railroad at Hicksford in time to prevent the mass of Beauregard's troops coming up. Col. West, with his negro cavalry on the Peninsula, returned to Williamsburgh, after frighting the rebels badly, and was sent out again. H. J. W.

The Landing at Bermuda Hundreds—The People Remaining in the District—A Lieutenant Promoted for Gallantry.

Headquarters of Gen. Butler's Department,
Bermuda Hundreds, Va., Friday, May 6, 1864.

The work of landing the troops, stores, horses and artillery, went on last night with uncommon dispatch, considering that the necessary wharves had first to be constructed. The shallow water near the banks of the James River at this point, does not admit of the very close approach of the transports, and pontoon bridges and other temporary landing-places had to be made. Everybody having anything at all to do with the debarcation, exhibited great energy and heartiness in the work, and this morning there were plenty of evidences that very few persons connected with the expidition had passed the night in sleep. On the river banks, and in the fields some distance inland, huge piles of ordnance, commissary and quartermaster stores—all the bulky and vast material needed for the effective working of a grand army—reared themselves as monuments to the industry of the chiefs of the Engineer and Quartermaster's Departments. Finding my way on shore early in the morning from the steamer Greyhound, where I am comfortably quartered, I threaded my way carefully through the labyrinth of field-batteries, artillery and cavalry horses, pyramids of stores, boxes of arms, and the incongruous and confused incidents and choking dust of the Summery weather, to a place where I could think and talk. From one of the Brigadier-Generals, whom I was lucky enough to encounter, I learned that during the night our pickets had been thrown out a couple of miles on the Petersburgh road, and that at dawn the Eighteenth Corps, under Maj.-Gen. W. F. Smith, had taken up the march and pressed on, while Gen. Gillmore's corps (the Tenth) was preparing to follow. The military aspect being encouraging, I next visited a few of the straggling houses on the beach, still occupied by rebel families, to have a chat with those inclined to be communicative. The first house contained a Mrs. Crawford, whom I could at once see was a good specimen of the "poor white trash" of Virginia. She was exceedingly non-committal, and very ignorant on every conceivable topic. She did not know whether our army was expected nor the distance from City Point to Richmond. Her husband was a conscript and had left his home as our boats appeared around the bead in the river. She and her three little children appeared to be very poor. The feet of the little girl were swathed in rags for want of shoes, and the little boys wore jackets made of faded and worn-out ingrain carpets. Our good-natured soldiers, as they were called at the house of this poverty-stricken woman, offered her plenty of rations of salt pork and biscuit from their superabundant supply, and she seemed to appreciate the gift. I learned from her that the precise point where we had landed was a favorite fishing ground for shad, and that the rebel Government at Richmond for some time back had monopolized this business. Her husband, from his familiarity with the location, had been detailed to superintend the Government nets. A free negro, living near this rebel woman, told me that he had been forbidden, upon penalty of severe punishment, supplying his wants from the river, and was dependent altogether for piscatorial supplies upon the Government fishermen. The Richmond monopoly verily surpassed the Camden and Amboy.

On a very large plantation, near here, at a delightfully located house on the river bank, I found an old Virginia gentleman named Watkins. With stately courtesy he offered me the hospitalities of his house, but I could not conscientiously accept them, and preferred to talk with him beneath the stately oaks in his door yard. He acknowledged that the arrival of the Union army here, just at this time, was the largest kind of a surprise to everybody. They expected us here sometime, but as far as they had been able to learn of Gen. Butler's intentions, this movement was destined to advance up the Peninsula. The old man's manner showed him to be a very coward, and miserable at the expected loss of his farm stock—negroes and cattle. He said that he was a "neutral," and hoped that Gen. Butler would protect him. He hoped that I would speak to the General and have a guard placed over his house to prevent intrusion upon him. His negroes he trusted would not be carried off. They loved him and he was sure would not leave him unless we compelled them to. I left the old man and his three shrewish looking daughters who had come out of the house to listen to the conversation, and went down to the quarters of his servants to hear if their story respecting the happiness and contentment of their lot coincided with the statement of their master. Not a bit of it. Old and young, they were busily packing up their homely traps to follow the army of liberation. They had prayed the good Lord for this day, they said, and seemed vaguely happy because it had come. Their old master, instead of being loved as before, was hated. They accused him of cruelty, in starving and overworking them. His daughters were worse than he. One old woman who had borne thirteen children, some of whom had been sold to other plantations beyond her power of seeing them, by this hoary old rebel, told me as she packed up her rags in a bundle, that all her life long she had slaved for her master, who still expected from her as much labor as when she was young and strong, and she would leave him if she had only a year to live in freedom. These negroes told me that the news of our coming up the river reached them early yesterday morning, and as soon as he heard it, old Watkins gathered together the largest part of his slaves and carried them to Petersburgh. He then visited those whom he did not take away, and threatened all sorts of punishment if they did not express to the "Yankees" their satisfaction at being his chattels. He had endeavored to frighten them also, with horrible tales of the barbarity of the "Yankees" toward those who had gone to them. It is needless, however, to say that these stories were not believed. I am assured that Gen. Butler will put a spade into Mr. Watkins' hands, and make him work in the intrenchments, if these charges of the negroes can be proved against him. He probably will be confronted with his accusers.

I learned this morning that as the army gunboats, under Gen. Graham, advanced up the river yesterday, they drove the rebel signal officers from their stations along the banks, and, in some instances, in such a hurried manner that dispatches, proving beyond question that the movement here was a surprise, fell into our hands. Lieut. Wm. H. Bledenheiser, commanding the gunboat Brewster, captured fourteen signal flags himself at Swan Point and Bermuda Hundred, landing at the latter place and driving the rebels a mile and a half. Upon Gen. Graham's recommendation, Lieut. Bledenheiser was promoted, by Gen. Butler, to a Captaincy in the First United States Volunteers, for his gallantry.

A sad accident happened a few hours since on board the transport Curlew. John P. Maull, the Second Engineer, was accidentally caught by the crank of the engine and horribly mangled. He died within an hour. He was a native of Boston, but his friends, it is supposed, are living in Maine.

I have hurriedly noted the results of my morning's work and must close. This afternoon I shall probably have some news. H. J. W.

A Ride along the Lines—The Gunboat Commodore Jones Destroyed by a Torpedo—Petersburgh only Defended by the Militia.

At the Front, Friday Night, May 6, 1864.

With Gen. Butler and his Staff, I was privileged this afternoon to ride along our lines. The army has advanced on the Petersburgh road, a distance of about eight miles, where it will remain for the night. Its left flank is protected by gunboats in the Appomattox, and its right by gunboats in the James. From Gen. Smith's headquarters, it is easy to see the spires of Petersburgh, and the general impression is that there will no great impediment to our advance upon that town.

A report, abundantly verified, has come to me, of a sad mishap on the James River. The gunboat Commodore Jones, Volunteer Lieut. Wade commanding, was entirely destroyed about 1 o'clock this afternoon, seven miles below Fort Darling, by a torpedo. About fifty lives were lost, and Lieut. Wade was seriously if not mortally wounded. My statement of the occurrence is from on eye-witness. He says that the Jones, with other gunboats, was fishing in the river for torpedoes, when one exploded beneath her, directly amidships, with a smothered sound. The boat was crushed like a piece of paper, and huge fragments of the wreck were lifted high in air. The executive officer of the Jones retained his foothold on a piece of the deck, and as a rare instance of coolness in such a sudden and trying event, it must be told that he drew a pistol and shot dead a rebel on the bank of the river, who had exploded the diabolic contrivance by means of a galvanic battery. This remarkable incident is vouched for. Subsequently the river bank was examined by

The steamship Hansa, from Southampton April 27, with two days later news, arrived at this port yesterday afternoon.

ENGLAND.

PROCEEDINGS OF PARLIAMENT.

In the House of Lords on Monday, April 26, nothing of importance occurred.

In the House of Commons on the same day, Mr. BENTINCK made explanations regarding the help alleged to have been given by Admiral MUNDY to GARIBALDI in Sicily. He denied that the Admiral had given any assistance to the General.

The Thames Conservancy Bill was read a second time after considerable discussion.

Other orders were disposed of, and the House adjourned.

THE CONFERENCE.

The Plenipotentiaries accredited by the several European Powers to the conference holden in London, with a view to the restoration of peace, met on Monday, at 1 P. M., at the Treasury. All the members appointed to the conference were present. They were as follows:

Austria, Count Apponyi and Privy Councillor Biegeleben; France, Prince de la Tour d'Auvergne; England, Earls Russell and Clarendon; Prussia, Count Bernstorff and Privy Councillor Balan; Russia, Baron Brunnow; Denmark, Baron de Bille, M. Quaade, the Minister, and Councillor Krieger; German Confederation, M. de Beust, Saxon Minister; Sweden, Count Wachmeister.

A Cabinet council was held on Saturday at the official residence of the First Lord of the Treasury.

The Memorial Diplomatique and other Paris papers give the following as the basis for deliberation which Austria, Prussia and the German Confederation propose to bring forward at the conference now sitting: Integrity of the Danish monarchy; political and administrative autonomy of the Duchies; maintainance of their union in one single State; Rendsburg to be made a German Federal fortress as a guarantee of the autonomy and indivisibility of the Duchies.

THE ALEXANDRA.

The Times says:

"A writ from the Court of Exchequer was served on the Collector of Customs at Liverpool, ordering him to deliver the Alexandra to her owners, and in consequence the Collector has intimated that she will be delivered up on Monday, April 25."

THE MEXICAN BLOCKADE.

The Times says: "Earl RUSSELL has received a copy of a letter dated Feb. 29, addressed by the Rear-Admiral commanding the French squadron in the Pacific, to Commander PIKE, commanding Her Majesty's ship Devastation, notifying the effective blockade, by the French naval forces, of the ports of Acapulco and Manzanilla, on the west coast of Mexico."

THE REBEL PIRATES.

A SUSPICIOUS WAR VESSEL—WHEREABOUTS OF THE ALABAMA.

The Hamburg bark Orion arrived at St. Helena March 23, and reports: On March 13, in lat. 34° S., lon. 15° 5' E., observed a screw-steamer, under sail, with the American ensign flying, and a signal, "Heave to, and I will send a boat on board." The Orion was then hove to, when a boat was lowered from the steamer, and came alongside of us, with eight men, all armed, and an officer in uniform. The ship's papers and log were demanded. The latter being new, the old one was demanded. The boat's crew told my crew that they had 270 men on board; and it was also stated that they were last from Rio Janeiro, but had been seventy days at sea. Also that they were waiting off the Cape for a store-ship, when they were to proceed to China, to take the place of an American frigate in those waters, about which they made inquiries; but when told of the Alabama being in the China waters they appeared to consider it insignificant. He then left us. The vessel is a three-masted schooner, sails very fast, and to all appearance is British-built. The Alabama put into Table Bay, March 20, for coals and other supplies. The total number of ships destroyed and captured in the Indian Seas had been seven: The Amanda, Winged Racer, Contest, Martaban, (or Texan Star,) Senora, Highlander and Emma Jane, but Capt. SEMMES reckoned the damage indirectly done to the Federal commerce by his cruise in the Indian Seas as equivalent to $15,000,000.

As the presence of the Alabama had caused such a panic that great numbers of the Federal ships lay in Singapore and other harbors for more than three months, unable to get freight, and afraid to venture out to sea. The Alabama was expected to remain in Table Bay for three or four days.

GARIBALDI.

EXTRAORDINARY PROCEEDINGS OF THE POLICE—A DEMONSTRATION IN FAVOR OF GARIBALDI DISPERSED.

GARIBALDI visited Windsor, and looked over the royal farmers on Saturday.

On Saturday afternoon the police were guilty for most extraordinary proceeding. A great body of workingmen had been convened on Primrose Hill, near London, to protest against the manner in which GARIBALDI had been induced to leave. Mr. BEALES had scarcely taken the chair when a strong body of police were marched to the spot, and insisted that the meeting should disperse. In effect, they drove the people from the hill, and behaved with great violence to some of the Workingmen's Committee.

GARIBALDI reached Plymouth on April 6.

FRANCE.

A telegram from Paris of April 24, says:

"Disturbances have broken out in Tunis. France and England have dispatched a naval force to that quarter to protect foreigners."

The Memorial Diplomatique in an article on the Conference says: "Lord CLARENDON has returned to London, having, in the name of his government, formally engaged to support energetically the demand for an armistice which the Prince de la TOUR D'AUVERGNE has been instructed to make at the first sitting of the Conference. In other words, France and England have mutually bound themselves to declare war against that Power which should refuse to agree to a truce. We believe ourselves able to state that no mention of an armistice was made at the first sitting of the conference, since so important a question could only be negatively discussed by the representatives of Germany. We believe that an armistice will be based upon the uti possidetis principle, unless Denmark should refuse to evacuate the Island of Alsen. Austria and Prussia

A telegram from Bucharest, April 24, says: "The Chamber of Deputies has passed a resolution will then, on their side, evacuate the territory of Jutland."

Accounts from the manufacturing districts are favorable.

There was no variation in the Paris corn market. Rentes very flat, closing at 66f. 85c.

RUSSIA.

Advices from St. Petersburgh state that it is not likely that Russia will send a second plenipotentiary to the Conference. Should, however, the conference be changed to a general congress, Prince GORTSCHAKOFF would proceed to London.

PRUSSIA.

A telegram from Berlin, of April 26, says: "Yesterday an engagement took place off Rugen Island, between a Prussian gunboat and the Danish iron-clad frigate Tordenskiold. The Danish frigate sailed off, pursued by nine slow-sailing Prussian boats, which failed to overtake her. The Tordenskiold was, however, subsequently overtaken by the Grille and set on fire, but the Danes succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The Minister of Public Worship has sent Privy Councellor STIEHL to Schleswig to inquire into the condition and wants of the school system in that Duchy."

AUSTRIA.

that in future the Ministers are to take the oath of allegiance to the people, and not to the Prince."

PORTUGAL.

A telegram from Lisbon, of April 24, says: "An Austrian screw-liner, two steam frigates, and one iron-clad frigate have arrived here."

ITALY.

A telegram from Turin, of April 25th, says: "The Italian frigate Re Galantuomo arrived this morning at Gibraltar."

A telegram from Naples of April 24, says: "A popular meeting has been held at Naples, when an address of thanks to the English people for the reception given to GARIBALDI was voted, and also an address of sympathy with Hungary. The address was presented to the English Consul at Naples."

A dispatch from Turin, of April 24, says: "In consequence of the disturbances that have taken place at Tunis, the Italian Government have dispatched two men-of-war to that quarter."

THE WAR IN DENMARK.

A telegram from Copenhagen, of April 22, says: "Yesterday all was quiet at Dybbol. Among the Danish dead lying in Ulkebol are the following officers: three Colonels, five Captains, eight Lieutenants, three cadets and one Chief Surgeon.

The King has signed a proclamation to the army, in which he says: 'The sufferings and losses of the last few days will not be in vain; they will bear fruits in this struggle against violence and injustice—a struggle the aim of which is the existence and independence of our country.'"

A telegram of April 23 says: "Yesterday and the day before encounters took place between the outposts of our Fourth Division and the enemy, who had advanced into Jutland. The enemy has occupied Horsens. Nothing of importance occurred yesterday. The enemy is at work in the Dybbol intrenchments, and is strengthening his batteries upon the shore of the Alsen Sound."

A telegram from Flensburg of April 22 says the King of Prussia has arrived here, and taken up his residence at the house of M. CALLSEN, a merchant of this city.

The General Staff will leave on the 23d for Veile.

News from Veile announces that a body of Prussians had arrived on the 20th, and proceeded, after a few hours' rest, to Horsens, where 8,000 Danes have fortified themselves.

Herr VON BISMARK has arrived at Flensburg.

A telegram from Berlin of April 24 says: "The King of Prussia returned from his visit to the Duchies this morning. He was accompanied by Herr VON BISMARK and Gen. VON MANTEUFFEL."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Times City Article, of Tuesday, April 26, says:

"The English funds have been very steady to-day, at the improved prices of Saturday. Consols closed at 91⅝@¾.

A great alteration was observable in the discount demand at the Bank to-day, applications having been unimportant. In the open market the terms were not perceptibly lower. The supply of money in the Stock Exchange was good, at 4½ ℘ cent.

Foreign Securities remained firm, notwithstanding a partial check occasioned by the continued receipt of dull prices from Paris, where the position of the bullion question creates distrust, the stock in the Bank of France being unusually low for this season of the year. Mexican was firm at the commencement, the market being strengthened by the news that the United States Senate have promptly disowned the recent resolution of the House of Representatives against recognizing, or even tolerating the new monarchy. The stock closed at 45¾@46. The Confederate Loan, on the news of the fresh rise in Gold at New-York, and of the symptoms of a disposition on the part of some bold members in Congress to bring up for the first time, the idea of acknowledging the Confederate States, has advanced 2 per cent., closing at 56@58.

The Bank return presents no feature of interest except the continued gain on the Deposit average, which is significant of the ease in the Money Market, in the absence of any decided demand either from the Merchants or the Brokers. The Loans are nearly two millions lower than last Monday. The rate for Money to the Brokers to-day is 6 ℘ cent., as the rule, the higher figure of 7 ℘ cent. being rather exceptional. There is not much disposition, withal, to speculate on cheap Money, either in Stocks or Merchandise, pending the great and momentous military events in Virginia. These continue to absorb the attention of the Stock and Corn Exchanges, and while the prevailing feeling to-day is one of strong hope in decided success, much prudence is manifested in awaiting the end of the struggle between GRANT and LEE. The falling back of the latter, which was confirmed in the afternoon, caused a decline in the price of Gold to 169½@170 per cent. Exchange on London is 109¾@110 ℘ cent. in Gold; the Currency rates very much unsettled.

The Stock Exchange was disposed to a partial degree of firmness on the Railway list in the forenoon; buyers being tempted to speculate to some extent on the additional decline of last week. At the Second Board prices were not so firm, and part of the advance of the morning was lost. There was an active inquiry for Government Securities and the long date Stocks of 1881 and 7-30 ℘ cents. convertible into them were higher, and the 5-20's steady. The Railway Mortgages and Border State Stocks were also steady.

At 4 o'clock the following prices were made, as compared with Saturday afternoon. There was a steady feeling after the adjournment of the Second Board, but without much business on the Street or at the Open Board of Brokers. On the average of the Railway list prices left off lower than on Saturday:

NEW SKIRT FOR 1864.
A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS.
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING.
J. I. & J. O. WEST, NO. 97 CHAMBERS-ST., NEW-YORK.
Are the owners of the patent and exclusive manufacturers of this.
J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED DUPLEX ELLIPTIC STEEL SPRING SKIRTS.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible and durable spring ever used, enabling the wearer, in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness, to place and fold the skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to hoop skirts, viz.: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place from the difficulty of contracting them to occupying a small space. This entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, and by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this City and throughout the different States.

HENRY H. LEEDS, Auctioneer.

GOUPIL & CO.'S ENTIRE COLLECTION OF FOREIGN PAINTINGS.—HENRY H. LEEDS & MINER will sell, at auction, on THURSDAY and FRIDAY EVENINGS, May 12 and 13, at 7½ o'clock, at the Old Dusseldorf Gallery, No. 548 Broadway, next door below Tiffany & Co's, Goupil & Co.'s entire collection of foreign paintings, of great value, with many fine examples of the American school. Many valuable importations have been made to give especial attraction to this sale, and which will be then for the first time exhibited, including one of the very finest works by that celebrated historical painter, C. L. Muller,

"MARIE ANTOINETTE IN PRISON."

Also, for the second time in the history of auction sales in this country, one of those marvels of art by the great Meissonieur.

"THE STANDARD BEARER,"

the largest picture ever seen in America by Verboeckhoven—of a "Bull Fight;" one of the largest and best of H. Schlesinger's works, "The Toilet;" two very charming subjects by the popular Ed. Frere; and choice selections from the works of Landelle, Bouguereau, Toulmouche, Chavet, Trayer, Van Muyden, Beranger, Valeris, Troyon, Gude, Petit, Caille, Bourges, Lambinet, Compte Calix, Thom, Coutourier, Lemmene, Theo. Frere, Veyrasset, De Braekeleer, Willems, Pecrus, Peyrot, Bonheur, Lasalle, David, Marbon, Gauermann, Jacque, Lanfant, de Metz, Van Marck, Fortin, Micas, Swebark, Boser, Deshayes, Leickert, Stephens, Waldorp, Palizzi, Le Ray, Seignas, and many others of the French and foreign schools.

THE AMERICAN SCHOOL

will be represented by a number of very desirable pictures selected from the studios of the artists, and contributed expressly for this sale. Among others we present the names of Durand, Kensett, Bierstadt, Gignoux, Casilear, Gifford, Eatman Johnson, Gray, the two Harts, McEntee, Lang, Haseltine, Benson, Dana, Hennessey, Whittredge, Brandt, Hays, Innes, Church, Wier, Dana.

And we take pleasure in announcing one work of the very highest merit and of great historic value, the celebrated picture by JOHN VANDERLYN of the finest work of the artist, and long acknowledged the most beautiful as it is the most refined nude figure ever painted by an American, and is well known by the best line engraving ever done in this country, by the distinguished artist, A. B. DURAND.

The very high standing of the house of Messrs. GOUPIL, their reputation for taste, and the many advantages they possess for selection through their various houses in the art capitals of Europe, have always given their importations advantages over all other parties. At this time, too, their collection offers particular inducements to collectors, as the new tariff and constantly increasing high rates of exchange must nearly altogether preclude further importations.

Full particulars, with catalogues, will shortly be ready.

The collection will be on exhibition at the Dusseldorf Gallery, No. 548 Broadway, on THURSDAY, May 5, continuing open day and evening until the nights of sale.

MORRIS WILKINS, Auctioneer.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The news this morning fully confirms all that was promised yesterday. Gen. GRANT's victory brightens and looms up in importance as time brings us fuller particulars. The official dispatches from Gens. GRANT and MEADE announce that LEE began his retreat on Friday night, and on Saturday morning he was promptly pursued by our army. Gen. HANCOCK, with the Second Corps, pressing forward and passing through Spottsylvania Court-house on Sunday morning. On Sunday, at noon, headquarters of the army were twenty miles south of the battle field toward Richmond. Fredericksburgh was occupied by our cavalry at eight o'clock on Saturday evening, and a depot for the wounded will be at once established there. The news from Gen. BUTLER is regarded as favorable. He had a severe engagement on Saturday with BEAUREGARD'S troops, in which the latter were driven back, and the railroad destroyed. Among the casualties on our side is Brig.-Gen. JAMES S. WADSWORTH, killed. LEE, in his report of the battle of Thursday, reports four of his Generals killed and wounded, among them LONGSTREET, severely. The news has brought forth from the President a recommendation for thanksgiving and prayer.

A special dispatch to the Evening Post says that "before crossing the Rapidan Gen. GRANT wrote to the President a frank, manly letter, telling him that the Administration had granted him everything he could desire, and that the responsibility of the present movement was entirely his own."

The Washington Intelligencer, of Monday, says: Brig.-Gen. EDWARD R. S. CANBY was confirmed by the Senate, on Saturday last, as a Major-General of Volunteers, and the same evening set out for the Southwest, under orders to relieve Gen. BANKS of his command,

FROM EUROPE.

By the arrival of the steamship Hansa, from Southampton April 27, we have two days' later news from Europe. Parliamentary proceedings were unimportant. The Conference met on the 25th, and all the representatives were not present, and nothing was done. The Alexandra would be delivered up to her owners on the 25th. A suspicious war steamer had been seen by the Hamburg bark Orion, on the 13th of March, which spoke her, but gave no information as to who she was. The Alabama was in Table Bay, Indian Ocean, on the 20th March, but had destroyed no more vessels, though she had driven all American shipping from those waters. GARIBALDI had reached Plymouth, April 26, to take his departure. The meeting of workingmen, in London, to protest against the treatment of GARIBALDI, was dispersed by the police. There was nothing new in the Danish war. The first thing demanded in the Conference would be an armistice.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate yesterday an adverse report was made on the expediency of changing the southern front of the Treasury building. The bill for the erection of a branch mint at Philadelphia was passed. Mr. HOWARD reported a substitute for the Pacific Railroad Bill. The Senate considered the Bank Bill at length, but little or no progress was made. An amendment by Mr. DOOLITTLE, to keep the circulation of the banks within certain bounds, was voted down. Mr. WADE, of Ohio, from the Committee on the Conduct of the War, made a report in reference to the returned prisoners at Baltimore and Annapolis. On his motion, 25,000 copies were ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate. Mr. COLLAMER then read a dispatch from the Secretary of War, announcing a victory by Gen. GRANT, when the Senate adjourned.

In the House, on motion of Mr. ROGERS, of New-Jersey, a resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on Naval Affairs to examine into the expediency of locating the proposed navy-yard on the west side of the Hudson River, nearly opposite Yonkers. The Missouri contested election case of BRUCE against LOAN came up, but after discussion was postponed, without any conclusion on the subject.

GENERAL NEWS.

The draft is ordered to take place in this City to-morrow, (Wednesday,) for the deficiency of our quota under the last call for 200,000 men, which is believed to be less than 700. This number will be distributed pro-rata to the several Congressional districts in the City. It is understood that the draft is to be made on the same day throughout this State. The orders for the draft here were sent on several days ago, and yesterday peremptory orders to make it on Wednesday were received. In consequence of this, the labors of the Supervisors' Recruiting Committee will close to-day. All the men they enlist to-day, however, will be allowed in reduction of the number for which the draft is ordered to be made. The Committee will submit their report to the Board of Supervisors at the meeting to be held to-day.

On Saturday night last PATRICK GANLEY, a conductor of car No. 41 of the Second-avenue line, while in the discharge of his duty on the rear platform, was struck in the left temple with a stone thrown by one of a gang of forty or fifty rowdies of the Fourth Ward. GANLEY was knocked to the pavement, taken up insensible and conveyed to the New-York Hospital, where he died soon after. An investigation has been commenced in the case by Coroner WILDEY. The testimony thus far adduced shows it to have been a most malicious and brutal outrage on the part of the gang. The perpetrator had not been arrested at a late hour last night; but Capt. BRYAN, of the Fourth Precinct, has a full description of him, and that officer has no doubt but that he will succeed in finding him. The affair occurred at the corner of William and Pearl streets. Deceased was a native of this State, and 22 years of age.

It is stated that a dam is building above the falls at Alexandria, Louisiana, for the purpose of raising the Red River at that point sufficiently to float over the gunboats. In the Savannah (Ga.) News we find this paragraph: "A gentleman who is posted advises the editor of the Macon Telegraph that what is called the 'winter rise' in the Western rivers takes place usually in June, from the thawing of the ice and snow in the mountains. If this be the case, the Yankee gunboats will probably be floated out of Red River before midsummer, if they should not be destroyed ad interim. He says they are detained by no 'raft,' but by a shoal just above the town of Alexandria, where he felt sure they would be caught when they went above it at this season of the year."

Yesterday afternoon an affray occurred at the porter-house, No. 112 Mulberry-street, between a party of thieves and roughs on the one side, and a notorious character, WALTER BELL, alias "Scotty the Munger" on the other. Some eighteen shots were fired: Scotty was killed, one of his opponents had a finger taken off, and a woman, who witnessed the scene, was dangerously wounded, being shot through the neck.

In the Court of General Sessions, yesterday, AUGUSTUS FITZPATRICK was tried and convicted of grand larceny. Prisoner was the boy arrested a few weeks since in the act of extracting a $500 bill through a hole in an exchange broker's window by means of a crooked wire.

Neither Board of the Common Council had a quorum at their meetings yesterday. The Aldermen stand adjourned without day, and the Councilmen to 2 o'clock P. M., on Thursday.

There were no new developments in the Tax Commissioners' imbroglio yesterday. The old board still possess the books and papers, and work in the office is quite at a standstill, the clerks doing little or nothing.

In consequence of the strike of the 'longshoremen, and threatened disturbance, a large force of police were sent to the "infected districts," yesterday. There was no need of their services, however, as no acts of violence were attempted.

The cattle market shows a lighter supply, and firmer prices than last week. The receipts are 3,000. Sales were moderately brisk yesterday, with an advance of about ½c. ℔ ℔. over last week's quotations—the best steers rating at 17c.@17½c. ℔ ℔., net weight; good fair lots sold at 15c.@16½c. There were but few inferior cattle on sale. The arrivals of sheep at Sixth-street this week are very light. Prime sheep have been sold since Wednesday last at 10¾c. ℔ ℔., live weight. Fair to good lots are worth from 8½c.@9½c., with the wool on. Shorn sheep rate at 6¾c.@7½c., and the very best may be quoted at 7½c., gross.

The triumph of GRANT and the consequent fall in gold brought business operations to a stand yesterday. Light sales of produce were made, though Flour declined 15c.@20c. ℔ bbl.; Wheat 5c. and Oats 2c.@3c. ℔ bushel; Whisky 3c.@4c. ℔ gallon; Pork 25c. ℔ bbl. Cotton, Groceries, and most kinds of general merchandise, were partially neglected. Freights were very dull.

The price of Gold was 1½@2 ℔ cent. lower yesterday afternoon than on Saturday. Money was easy. Government Stocks in demand. The Railways unsettled.

The Retreat of Lee.

The great and salient fact in the intelligence from Virginia this morning, is the confirmation of yesterday's announcement that LEE had retreated from before Lieut.-Gen. GRANT. His flight commenced on Friday night, immediately after the drubbing he had received on that day and the preceding. His course seems to have been nearly due South, in the direction of Spottsylvania Court-house and Richmond. On Saturday, the Lieutenant-General promptly gave chase to him, made a march on that day of twenty miles, passed through Spottsylvania Court-house at daylight on Sunday; and there may be truth in the telegram that LEE was forced again to fight on that day, was again repulsed and compelled to continue his retreat. Secretary STANTON, whose dispatches to Gen. DIX have been our most reliable sources of information, sends word under date of yesterday evening, that GRANT is pushing on to Richmond, and that the official belief is that he is achieving a complete victory. The President also sends to the country a modest note of congratulation and calls upon the people to render thanks to the God of Battles.

In leaving his defensive works on Wednesday last, almost simultaneously with the crossing of the Rapidan by our army, and in his energetic assault upon our lines on Thursday and Friday, LEE exhibited a confidence that has terribly failed to justify itself. He failed to break our left, failed to pierce our centre, failed to turn our right, failed to separate our corps, failed to flank us on either wing He succeeded only in making failures, and in putting a large number of his own men and of ours hors du combat. Failing in the field, he attempted to succeed in retreat; but how far he has been successful, is yet to be learned.

It looks very much as if GRANT meant to make this pursuit a determined one, though he cannot make it a simple or an easy one. It is a new thing for the Army of the Potomac to follow up a defeated enemy, but we believe it is a thing the Army of the Potomac can do.

It is very likely that LEE will now move by his right to head our army, and fall back, step by step, to the North Anna River, behind which he can make a bold stand, if his rear be kept clear by the force about the rebel capital. It is possible that our army, moving by its left, could by forced marches reach the railroad at the same time, and push along it too rapidly for the enemy to do it much damage.

Evidently the contest will now be for the possession of the Central Railroad—that almost vital line with the rebels. The river in its front gives the enemy an advantage that will enable them to make a bold stand, but it is to be hoped that our heavy force of artillery may be able to drive them from the river, however determined they may be to cling to its right bank. Time is the great thing now. If LEE can gain time to throw up batteries and connect them with lines of rifle-pits, that will be so much against us; but we are glad to see that GRANT means to give him no time.

There is but one thing to be apprehended, and that is the heavy force of rebel cavalry. But Gen. SHERIDAN will doubtless watch closely the manœuvreings of STUART.

Other facts of the morning about the operations of last week relate to the occupation of Fredericksburgh, which was effected on Sunday night, and to the losses we have suffered, which are estimated at twelve thousand. The wounded have been sent to Fredericksburgh, and we suppose that the railroad from thence to Aquia Creek will be at once opened and a new base there established. It was doubtless for this purpose that GRANT sent his order to the War Department on Saturday for railroad construction trains.

We shall hope this week to receive further news of victory in this struggle in Virginia, as well as in the operations in Georgia, which Secretary STANTON announces were to take the form of battle yesterday. And the whole country, it is to be hoped, will devoutly heed the pious advice of the President.

The Empire State Not to be Disgraced.

We rejoice in the efforts that are being made by our State officers, and by public-spirited capitalists to prevent the stain which the action of the Legislature, in virtually deciding that our foreign creditors should not be paid their interest in gold, is bringing upon our State credit. It passes understanding how a Legislature of intelligent and honest men could have thus yielded to the wretched sophistry that aimed to show that it was no violation of good faith to pay the foreign creditors in what our laws recognize to be "legal tender."

The foreign creditor lent the State of New-York his money, which was gold, and was promised certain interest on that money. That interest he understood and we understood to be five per cent. of that gold money. If we will only pay him now that interest in paper money, which is worth only about three-fifths as much as gold, we virtually compel him to accept three per cent. instead of five. Most palpably this is a violation of the agreement. The same principle would allow us, if the bonds were due, to pay him the entire amount in our depreciated money—that is to say six hundred dollars in gold for every thousand dollars in gold that he lent us. It would enable every Southern State to clear itself of its old European indebtedness by paying twenty gold dollars for every thousand borrowed—the twenty dollars being first put in the shape of Confederate legal tender, which is about worth fifty to one. The idea is monstrous. Did the men at Albany deliberately mean to make the State of New-York a bye-word and a hissing throughout Europe?

We know that it is said that no distinction ought to be made between the foreign and the domestic creditors. If this be true, then pay the domestic creditors gold. Accept any consequences, sooner than take disgrace in the sight of the world. But it is not true. The contract formed with the foreigner was absolute. He agreed to it without reference to contingencies, without any knowledge of or concern for our internal affairs. He took it for granted that we would manage our affairs, so that we would repay him his money—precisely as he who sells goods to the father of a family, or the head of a manufactory, would take it for granted that the family affairs or the factory affairs will be so managed that he will get his pay when his bills fall due. But where an American lends his money to the General Government, or to the State Government, he lends it not only as an individual, but under his relations as a citizen. It is in some sort a family affair with him, and the transaction is subject to domestic regulations. As a member of the State he can justly be called upon to make sacrifices, to conform to the necessities of the State, when it would be altogether wrong to exact anything of the kind from a foreigner. Our internal war has made it necessary for our Government to issue paper currency. To prevent this currency from ruinously depreciating, our Government has been compelled to make it "legal tender" for the payment of all domestic debts. There is no sound reason for making any distinction between these debts. All debts contracted before the rebellion were contracted with reference to the specie standard, and it is no greater hardship for the domestic creditor of the State to be obliged to take his pay, or his interest, in legal tender, than for the creditor of an individual to be obliged to do the same thing. On the other hand, it is no more just for the State to oblige a foreign creditor to accept our "legal tender" for his dues, than it would be for an individual merchant to attempt to do the same thing with his foreign creditor. Should the latter attempt that, he would be set down at once as a knave.

The State of New-York was never before put in such a dishonorable position. We wonder how representatives, who voted to treat the foreign creditors in this fashion, could go home and look their honest constituents in the face. It is true enough that our currency is in a bad plight, and that this has greatly disturbed the relations of debtor and creditor here at home. But this will not affect our external obligations one tittle. Whether we are in peace or in war, in good fortune or in ill-fortune, with a specie currency or a paper currency, foreigners who have lent us gold are entitled to have gold back, when either principal or interest is due. The State of New-York is able to pay it, and we are thankful that there are honest men in the State who are resolved that she shall pay it. The people, we will be bound for it, will take good care that the next Legislature sent to Albany will be men who know the meaning of public faith, and its priceless worth too, and who will surely meet any liability which may be assumed, either by our State officers, or by our private capitalists, to save the State from dishonor. Let arrangements be at once made so as to insure, beyond all possibility of failure, the payment in gold of every dollar of interest the very day it falls due to our foreign creditor.

Public Offices and Those Who Fill Them —Mr. Sumner's Bill.

Mr. SUMNER has introduced a bill into the Senate, which, owing to the general absorption of the public attention in the great events which are taking place in the field, will probably not attract much notice, but it nevertheless attempts to deal with a matter which is of more importance, we venture to say, to the stability of this Government, than any other one thing except the extinction of the rebellion. It is neither more nor less than a sweeping measure of administrative reform; obliging all candidates for situations in the public service to pass an examination before a board appointed for the purpose; giving them their offices during good behavior, and with promotion through the various grades in the order of seniority, and a retiring pension after a certain term of service.

We have not much hope that the bill will pass this time. The public is not yet sufficiently alive to the magnitude and danger of the evil it proposes to remove, and Congressmen have too much interest in its retention to allow us to hope that they will ever consent to make war against it until they are driven to it by pressure from their constituents. But we feel satisfied that we shall not have to wait very long after the critical period of the war has passed for people to be thoroughly convinced that this Government cannot be carried on much longer with the present system of making appointments in the civil service. The work of government will henceforward be too vast and varied, the sum of money passing through its hands every year too great, the details with which it will have to deal too complicated, to render it possible to perform it without a staff of trained officials, furnished with the usual motives to behave well and to make the public service the whole and sole business of their lives. There will be a standing army equal to that of several European first-class Powers, a navy perhaps the largest in the world, a post-office on a scale hitherto unknown, a revenue system of unequaled magnitude and complexity, and a revenue equal, if not greater, than that of Great Britain. We do not believe there is an intelligent man in the community who honestly believes that all these departments can possibly be administered in such a way as to hold the Union together with officials selected, as now, without the slightest reference to their character, qualifications, or to anything except the claims of themselves or their patrons on "the party," and discharged as often as the Administration is changed, or oftener. They would be more than human who, under such circumstances, would do their duty either honestly, or faithfully, or efficiently.

There is, however, a still stronger objection to the present system than that drawn from its inefficiency. It will henceforward furnish the Administration, for the time being, with an engine of corruption such as has never before been lodged in the hands of any man or any body of men—and such, as in our system of Government, could not fail to be sooner or later fatal to our liberties. If every President is to be armed with the power of employing the vast army of functionaries whom we are to have henceforward in our service, as electioneering agents, and to make their bread dependent on their zeal in securing him a continuance in office, the Presidential election would soon become a sorry farce. No man, no matter what his character, is fit to be intrusted with any such power; and no people animated by even ordinary regard for their own security would intrust him with it.

All danger of the growth of a bureaucracy amongst us, or in other words, all danger of the loss by the public of proper control and influence over those who serve it, will, of course, always be avoided by the ordinary changes in the heads of departments. As long as we can turn the President and his Cabinet out of office every four years, we have very effectual security for the good behavior of his subordinates.

THAT RAM.—We are glad to have the news that a monitor has been ordered to the North Carolina coast to attend to that rebel ram which has been cavorting about there for the past fortnight. Its first exploit was in dashing down the Roanoke River, attacking our vessels at its mouth, and assisting in the capture of Plymouth and its garrison. Subsequently it threatened Little Washington, at the mouth of the Tar River, and caused its evacuation. It was next reported to be rushing down in the direction of Newbern, on the Neuse River, and seems to have caused great perturbation there. We had vessels enough in the North Carolina Sound, but none of them dared to give fight to it.

When the monitor gets within sight of it, we shall probably see some lively work, and there will doubtless very soon be one rebel ram the less in the universe.

OBITUARY.

GEN. WADSWORTH.

Gen. JAMES S. WADSWORTH, whose death, we deeply regret to say, is reported from the field of battle, and who was one of the earliest and most ardent volunteers for the war, was a well-known and highly respected citizen of this State. Born to a rich patrimony in the Valley of the Genesee, at the opening of the present century, Gen. WADSWORTH possessed unusual advantages, had he chosen to use them, for taking a front position long ago in public life. The son and heir of the great land owner and philanthropist, JAMES WADSWORTH, of Genesee, he had the opportunity, which is accorded to a comparatively small class in these Northern States, of following politics as a profession, unincumbered with pecuniary anxieties. But his ambition from an early period of his life appears to have been directed toward volunteer military service. And he set far higher store, so far as his own feelings were concerned, by the position which his valor had won for him in the national army, than if he had been the successful candidate for Governor of his native State, in place of Mr. SEYMOUR. His first service in the field was under MCDOWELL at Bull Run. About the 1st of August, 1861, he was commissioned a Brigadier-General; and during the long drilling months which succeeded Gen. MCCLELLAN'S appointment to the command-in-chief, Gen. WADSWORTH won for himself the credit among the most experienced army officers of having his brigade, long before the close of the year, in the most efficient condition alike, as to drill and discipline. He chafed exceedingly under the long delays intervening between the first great battle of the war and the advance on Manassas, nine months later. And his evidence before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, shows the zealous and ardent temperament which controlled his views of military duty, and which led him straight into the front of danger and death in this last great conflict. In the Spring of 1862, Gen. WADSWORTH was appointed Military Governor of the District of Columbia; and on the advance by Gen. MCCLELLAN to Manassas, and subsequently to the Peninsula, Gen. WADSWORTH'S command extended to Occoquan Bay; and for the range of duty embraced in this wide territory, he was left on the 2d of April, 1862, with some 15,000 infantry and about 4,000 artillery, and of this force one-fourth was ordered to the Peninsula, leaving the defences of Washington with a garrison of less than half what he considered requisite. In the Winter of '62-3, after his defeat as candidate for Governor of this State, he passed several months in the field, and was engaged at the battle of Chancellorsville. He was charged later in the season with a mission to the Southwest and the Gulf States, in connection with the organization of colored troops; and his latest position was that of General of the Fourth Division of the Fifth Corps. He gave his sons as well as himself to the service of his country, and used his means with the utmost liberality to aid the national cause. His generosity to the poor, his noble simplicity of character, his pure and heroic patriotism, his high religious tone, combined to give him the reputation by which he will long be remembered, of a Christian gentleman and soldier.

GEN. ALEXANDER HAYS.

Gen. HAYS, whose name appears among the list of killed at the great battle of the Wilderness, was commander of the Second Brigade in BIRNEY'S division, in the corps of Gen. HANCOCK, and fell in the desperate assault upon that column on Thursday last. He was little over 40 years of age at the time of his death. Born at Pittsburgh, Penn., he entered the Academy at West Point in 1840, graduating four years later. His first commission, in the Fourth United States Infantry, bore date of 1842, and he was greatly distinguished two years later for his bravery at the battles of Resaca de la Palma and Palo Alto, in Mexico. He was first brought into prominent notice since the present war broke out, as Colonel of the Sixty-third Pennsylvania Infantry. He was at the battles of Seven Pines and Fair Oaks, and in September following, he got his commission as Brigadier-General. Subsequently, in the battles of Fredericksburgh, Chancellorsville, Gettysburgh, Bristoe Station and Mine Run, he greatly distinguished himself. At Gettysburgh, he commanded a division with such distinguished ability as to secure high compliments from Gen. HANCOCK; and we learn that in the action in the Wilderness he sustained his reputation of being one of the most splendid officers in the veteran Army of the Potomac.

ABRAHAM GESNER, M. D.

This celebrated chemist and geologist died at Halifax, Nova Scotia, on the 29th of April last, in the 67th year of his age. Though more generally known here as a chemist, Dr. GESNER was one of the most experienced geologists in America. He surveyed New-Brunswick and Prince Edward's Island under the instructions of their several Governments, and from his extensive knowledge of the Lower Provinces generally, was enabled to write of them in a clear and instructive style. His chief works are Remarks on the Geology and Mineralogy of Nova Scotia, New-Brunswick, with Notes for Emigrants; Industrial Resources of Nova Scotia; A Practical Treatise on Coal, Petroleum and other Distilled Oils, and a work on The Fisheries of the Provinces, which he had just completed, and which will be published by the Government of Nova Scotia. Dr. GESNER'S principal and most successful effort in practical chemistry was the discovery and introduction of kerosene oil, and oils distilled from coal, bitumen, &c., into this country. He was a man of untiring energy and perseverance, and deserves the high reputation which he enjoyed both here and in Europe as a man of science.

TROTTING AT THE FASHION COURSE YESTERDAY.

Though comparatively an off day, and out of the programme, there was a goodly attendance at the Fashion yesterday, to witness the match for $500, half forfeit, mile heats, best three in five, to wagons, between the two Harlem horses—the gray gelding Sam and the bay gelding Billy—both celebrated on the road, and both having numerous partisans. Prior to the day, and during the morning, quite a considerable amount of money had been invested at evens—but on the track 50 to 20 was laid on Sam—and much interest was felt in the result, which promised a well-contested trot, and ended in its being the best that has taken place on the Fashion this season.

First Heat.—After some two or three attempts to get off, a good send off was accomplished—both troting on good terms to the turn, where Sam went off his feet, and Billy led nearly a length to the quarter pole in 45s.; taking the back stretch, Sam got down to his work again and led Billy half a length to the half-mile in 1:27; reaching the three-quarters, both went up, but were quickly caught. Billy having a slight lead to the home stretch turn—a good fair, head-and-head trot ensued, but Billy breaking within a few yards of the score, the gray came home a clever winner in 2:51.

Second Heat.—Four to one on Sam. A fair start was made after three attempts—Billy having the advantage to the turn and continuing it to the quarter pole, Sam catching, (0:44.) Sam now took the lead to the half mile—both up and down, but Sam the soonest, and he now was at least two lengths ahead, passing the half in 1:26. On the third quarter Billy closed the gap, but breaking at the home-stretch turn, left the gray to come home an easy winner by a length in 2:51¾.

Third Heat.—Seven or eight attempts were made at scoring, in the midst of which a heavy thunder shower came up—drenching the drivers, and compelling the spectators to seek shelter helter-skelter. A long delay ensued, but at last they got off, Sam leading to the turn, where he went up, and Billy passing him, accomplished the first quarter in 0:44¾. In the back stretch Billy increased his lead to a couple of lengths, continuing it to the half mile in 1-27. No alteration of moment took place to the three-quarter pole, but taking the home-stretch turn Sam went up and closed the gap, and a splendid spirt ensued, terminating in a declared dead heat in 2:55.

Fourth Heat.—After four attempts they got away, but Billy broke immediately after getting the word, and Sam took a strong lead to the first quarter in 0:42¾, maintaining it down the back stretch to the half mile, in 1:25; on the third quarter Sam went up, and Billy took a lead of two lengths to the home stretch turn, where he broke and let Sam up, but being quickly caught, a good trot-in ensued, Sam winning inside the distance cleverly by two lengths, in 2:52.

THE 'LONGSHOREMEN ON A STRIKE.—A general strike was made yesterday morning by the 'longshoremen engaged on the North and East River piers. The North River hands demanding 37½ cents per hour and ten hours' work per day, and the East River men the same rates and but nine hours' labor per day.

In the morning the men appeared very much discontented and a riot was expected, but when Inspector LEONARD appeared with a force of two hundred men all signs of a riot disappeared and the men became suddenly very orderly. In addition to their own increase of pay, the strikers demanded that the men engaged by the transportation companies should also receive 37½ cents per hour. At present they receive $1 80 and the 'longshoremen $2 50 per day.

ARRIVAL OF COLORED TROOPS.—Two hundred and fifty recruits, a portion of the Fifth Massachusetts Colored Cavalry, passed through this City yesterday, en route for Washington.

GEN. STEELE'S ARMY.

Full Particulars of the Recent Advance and Retreat—An Exciting Race—The Loss of Wagons and Prisoners—The Fight at Sabine Fork.

ST. LOUIS, Monday, May 9.

The Democrat of this morning publishes the following:

The expedition of Gen. STEELE towards Shreveport has ended with his return, under rather exciting circumstances, to Little Rock.

A gentleman conversant with the facts has arrived here, and communicates a statement to the following purport:

Gen. STEELE left Little Rock with some 12,000 infantry and 3,000 cavalry, the latter under Gen. CARR.

Arkadelphia was occupied without difficulty, and a force moved forward to Camden.

Between Arkadelphia and Camden a subsistence train of 180 wagons was cut off and captured by the enemy, together with the escort of 480 men, who suddenly found themselves in the hands of a superior force, and made little resistance.

At Camden STEELE soon found the rebels, about 8,000 strong, cavalry, in his rear; and 240 wagons, dispatched from Camden toward Pine Bluff for stores, with an escort of 1,600 men, were captured by the enemy.

The steamer Alemo, with twenty tons of ammunition for STEELE and his army, was sunk, forty miles below Little Rock, by coming in collision with another steamer.

The pilot who had charge of the boat was put under arrest on suspicion of treachery, but subsequently was released.

STEELE could find no stores to subsist his troops on, and had to reduce their allowance to quarter-rations.

As the movement of Gen. STEELE was to be coöperative with the main one of Gen. BANKS, which had failed, there remained no course but to return to Little Rock.

Gen. PRICE undertook to retain Gen. STEELE at Camden, while Gen. MARMADUKE set off for Little Rock. STEELE, to act for the safety of the capital of Arkansas, with its Union population and millions of dollars worth of Federal stores, and for the rescue of his army, broke through the lines of Gen. PRICE, and set out to get to Little Rock in time to save it from MARMADUKE, who was also making every exertion to reach and bag the proposed game.

At Sabine Fork it became necessary to give PRICE battle, which was handsomely done. The rebels were well mounted and in fine condition. The fight was protracted and bloody, lasting for three or four hours, resulting in the complete repulse of the enemy, and leaving STEELE to resume his exciting race with MARMADUKE.

MARMADUKE approached Little Rock, throwing shells into the city, on the afternoon of the 1st instant. Shortly afterward CARR'S cavalry came up, and these joining the troops at the post, compelled MARMADUKE to relinquish his undertaking. He made little resistance as the main body of STEELE'S army was rapidly arriving.

The Arkansas Legislature was in session, and probably not one of its members, if caught, would have been spared by the exasperated foe.

During the entire march from Camden, our troops were constantly skirmishing with the enemy, who hung upon their rear and flanks, strenuously endeavoring to impede their progress.

There were no ambulances for our wounded near, and they had to be left in the houses of residents on the road.

The captured escort of sixteen hundred men was composed of the Thirty-sixth Iowa, the Forty-third Indiana and the Seventy-seventh Ohio regiments. Only forty-five succeeded in escaping.

Our informant represents STEELE'S cavalry deplorably deficient in horses, our men being compelled to use unbroken mules in many instances, or to try and use them to serve in the place of cavalry horses.

Gen. PRICE'S forces are still lingering in the vicinity, stripping off the desolated country anew.

BANKS' RED RIVER CAMPAIGN.

The Recent Operations—A Deplorable Account—A Quarrel Between Gen. Banks and Gen. Smith—Destruction of Stores.

Special Dispatch to the Rochester Democrat.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, May 8.

BANKS' FAILURE.

A bearer of dispatches from Admiral PORTER, whose character for intelligence and truthfulness is established here, who arrived to-day, gives an even more deplorable account of BANKS' disastrous campaign than any heretofore published, besides confirming, in all essential respects, the statements of private letters telegraphed you a week ago. He adds facts calculated to dispel whatever hopes the friends of Gen. BANKS may still entertain of a satisfactory explanation of his conduct.

On the first day a column of 30,000 men was exposed on the march in such fashion as to be easily and shamefully dispersed by from 12,000 to 15,000.

On the second day Gen. A. J. SMITH whipped the rebels alone, driving them six miles. He was in hot pursuit, eager to reap all the fruits of victory, when an order came from Gen. BANKS directing him to retreat with the rest of his army. Gen. Smith refused to obey. A second order to fall back he also refused to obey. Finally, Gen. BANKS in person brought a third order and insisted that SMITH should fall back before daylight. He begged permission to stay long enough to bury his dead and care for his wounded and sick, if only till an hour after sunrise; but Gen. BANKS was inexorable, and Gen. SMITH was obliged with tears in his eyes to leave his men, who had fallen on the battle-field, to the tender mercies of the rebels.

He carried two of the twenty-three cannon which the rebels abandoned, but was not allowed time even to spike the remainder. While our forces were retreating in one direction, the rebels were retreating in the opposite direction.

Some hours after Gen. SMITH'S departure, the rebels sent a flag of truce to the battle-field, to ask permission to bury their dead, and sought vainly for a long time for somebody to receive it. Three miles out from Alexandria, Gen. BANKS found Gen. MCCLERNAND, with six thousand men, on their way to reinforce him. He ordered him to fall back to Alexandria at once, after destroying his grain and supplies. MCCLERNAND refused twice to obey, but on receipt of the third order set fire to a part of his oats.

Gen. SMITH, with two thousand men, took the responsibility of marching to the spot, extinguishing the flames, and after remaining there all night, marched back again with the residue and all the other supplies.

At Gen. BANKS' request that these should be given up to him, Gen. SMITH replied that they were his by right of capture, and he should keep them for his own use. No General but BANKS was blamed for the campaign. STONE is pronounced without fault in this matter.

At the time the messenger left, eight iron-clad gunboats were above the falls, unable to reach Alexandria on account of low water, and unprotected by land forces. The Eastport had been blown up.

Admiral PORTER'S dispatches, while not going into so much detail concerning army operations, fully confirm the general conclusions as to the character of the Generalship of Gen. BANKS.

THE ANNIVERSARIES.

American Seamen's Friend Society.

The American Seamen's Friend Society held their thirty-sixth anniversary at Irving Hall last evening. The rain prevented a large attendance, but the friends of the society and the clergy were well represented. WM. A. BOOTH, Esq., President, occupied the chair, and introduced Rev. Dr. COX, who opened the exercises by reading a passage of Scripture, followed by a prayer.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. LAWRELL, of Havre, France, Dr. MANNING, of Boston, Mr. ROBINSON, of Brooklyn, and others.

From the annual report of the operations of the society for the year past, read by Mr. LOOMIS, one of the Secretaries, it appears that the rebellion has broken up most of the chaplaincies in Southern and foreign ports.

The missionaries of the society at the Brooklyn Navy-yard and at Philadelphia have supplied over 100 United States vessels with 170 libraries. The number of boarders received at the Sailors' Home during the year past has been 2,214. During the July riots the Colored Sailors' Home was rifled of all its contents. It has received, however, 553 colored sailors during the year. The report states that there are about 3,300 colored seamen belonging to vessels sailing out of this port. It is estimated that there are 9,000 in the U. S. Navy and 14,700 on the Western waters, making in all about 35,000 colored men in the naval and merchant service of the United States. The finances of the society are in a flourishing state. During the past year they have paid off the entire debt and are now free from that heavy burden. The receipts from all sources have been $69,216 88, an excess over the previous year of over $9,000.

Admiral FOOTE and PELATIAH PERIT, Vice Presidents of the society, have been removed by death since the last anniversary. Altogether the proceedings and the report were exceedingly gratifying to the friends of the seamen who assembled at Irving Hall last evening.

NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES.

THE NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES is published THIS MORNING, and may be had at the counter of the publication office in wrappers ready for mailing. Price Five Cents. In addition to the latest intelligence by telegraph up to the moment of going to press, there will be found in the current number full details of all military movements in the different departments from the pens of our special correspondents. Also, all official orders, reports and documents, and the latest and fullest Washington news, European news, with graphic letters from our correspondents in London and Paris, giving the tone of public feeling abroad, is made a special and permanent feature. In addition to Editorials on all the current topics of the day, the Semi-Weekly Times has a page of carefully prepared commercial matter, giving the latest financial news and market reports; items of agricultural and domestic interest, compiled from sources many of which are otherwise inaccessible to the American reader; and marriages and deaths of the week.

The "Semi-Weekly Record," or news summary—being a careful synopsis and digest of the news of the day, both rebellion and general—is alone worth double the subscription price to the paper, as it preserves in a condensed and conveniently classified form all news of interest, and must prove valuable as a record to all time.

"Sozodont" is now attracting very considerable attention, and well it may. The article represented by this musical name, is one of the best preparations for the teeth and gums that has ever been offered to the public.

We have been familiar with its results for some years past, and have never known a case in which its use was not pleasing and highly satisfactory. It polishes the teeth, hardens the gums, and gives a wholesome tone to the mouth and breath.—Providence Daily Press.

"IN HOC VINCES."

ROMAINE'S CRIMEAN BITTERS is composed very largely of calisaya, with a number of other rare medical plants, chiefly products of the tropics of Asia and America. It is the only exhilarant tonic or beverage in the world followed by no stupefying reaction; hence, for convalescents, the debilitated and sedentary, it has no equal. It has the pleasant bitter taste of pure calisaya bark, with an undefinable exquisite flavor suited to the most refined palate.

NEWARK, June 18, 1863.

Messrs. W. Chilton & Co.:

In answer to your inquiries with regard to the Crimean Bitters you kindly gave me, I can right honestly say, that as an invigorating and exhilarating tonic for the sedentary, it is all you said of it. It is better far than the wine, generosum et lene, Horace, as a dyspeptic, wished for at sea-bathing quarters:

"Quod curas abigat, quod cum spe divite manet
In venas animumque meum, quod verba ministret."

THE CASE OF HUTCHINGS, THE "LIGHTNING CALCULATOR."

There was published in these columns a few days since the remarkable cure of Hutchings, the "Lightning Calculator," so well known to the public during the many years he exhibited his wonderful arithmetical powers at Barnum's Museum, by the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Hutchings is represented to have been at the point of death, and but for the timely interference of the Doctor, would now be resting in his grave. This is a remarkable case, and worthy of the attention of persons similarly afflicted.

We think it is but just to Doctor Von Eisenberg to call public attention to this case. There are hundreds in the community suffering from catarrh, who, like the "Lightning Calculator," if not actually praying for death, are ready to accept of anything that promises to relieve them from their distresses. To such we would say, trifle not with inexperienced men, but consult, without unnecessary delay, Dr. Von Eisenberg, who, at least, has the honesty to assure his patients whether it is within his power to make them whole or not.

EARS TO THE DEAF.

Every man, and especially every woman, believes in his or her physician. There are philosophical minds which hold to an abstract faith in Allopathy, or Homeopathy, or Hydropathy, or some other form of scientific cure; but with the world at large the belief is not in the system, but in the doctor. Especially is this true as regards aurists and oculists. The patient who has recovered his sight or his hearing is sure that the blessing could have been restored to him by no other practitioner than that particular one by whom his eyes or ears were opened. Dr. Von Eisenberg is among our best-known aurists. He has not lent us ears as a brother practitioner has eyes, and in whose skill, therefore, we believe above all others. But we hear of him from those who esteem him not merely as a surgeon, but as a benefactor. A recent case has been related to us, for the truthfulness of which we can vouch, though we can name no names. The patient was a lady who had been deaf from infancy, as a consequence of some of the ailments to which children are liable. Latterly the disease had taken an acute form, and the patient was subject to intense suffering. The deafness was rapidly becoming complete, and the general health breaking down under the physical exhaustion attendant upon constant pain. Ordinary remedies and ordinary advice were useless, and Dr. Von Eisenberg was called in. We need not repeat his diagnosis, for that would be only a list of hard names to the general reader. But he detected at sight the seat of disease, first in one portion of the organism, then in another, and with manipulation as skillful as his insight was accurate, he removed the causes, and she who, from infancy, had heard with difficulty, and latterly hardly at all, was restored first to perfect hearing and then to perfect health. Dr. Von Eisenberg's advertisement reminds us of this case, which we thus briefly relate, though not at his solicitation. Let him that hath not ears, hear.

From the Christian Times.

SIGHT RESTORED.

CONCERNING EYES AND OCULISTS.

Of the five senses, that which we call seeing is the most important and most valued. In proportion as this sense fails us, we are reduced to helplessness. If entirely destitute of sight, how slow would be our progress in knowledge, and how limited our sphere of action and usefulness. Endowed with it, the universe becomes a new creation, clothed with beauty and diversified by that infinite variety which never fails to attract the mind and heart.

For several months past this has been a practical subject to us. An inflamed condition of the eyelids communicating itself to the pupil, rendered the discharge of daily duties not only painful, but dangerous. Attributing it to the effect of a cold, we endured it through the Spring, with the hope that with the return of warm weather it would entirely disappear. But in this we were doomed to disappointment. Summer returned, but not our wonted sight. What might have been the result, either of further neglect or of incompetent treatment, we cannot say.

Stating our case to a friend, he assured us that a similar one in his own family had recently been treated with entire success by Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Satisfying ourselves by more particular inquiries that the doctor is no empiric, but a scientific oculist and aurist, we concluded to seek the benefits of his treatment, which we have now reason to acknowledge is very great. Though but a few weeks under his care, the appearance of our eyes has totally changed. The pupil is now full and clear, and the lids are entirely free from inflammation. The doctor says that the optic nerve has been weakened and the retina assumed a chronic inflammatory state, affecting more or less all the other tissues, and threatening, if neglected, to end in Amaurosis. Opthalmitis, is the term we believe, which oculists apply to eyes affected as were ours. Having obtained the much desired relief, we take great pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to the talent of Dr. Von Eisenberg, and of calling to it the attention of others who may be suffering from a similar or even worse condition of their eyes. It is said that Providence provides an antidote for every bane. It is certain that the eye is, in these times, subject to severer trials than formerly. Let us be thankful, then, that as we increase the tendencies which destroy the organ of vision, the progress of science keeps pace with these tendencies, if not in advance of them.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any State or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption, FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually, and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay

OVER EIGHT PER CENT. INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued until March 26, but the amount of Bonds reported sold at the United States Treasury up to May 7 was $44,606,100.

Subscriptions will be received by the TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES at Washington, and the ASSISTANT TREASURERS at New-York, Boston and Philadelphia, and by the

His certificate certified to by his physician.

His certificate certified to by his neighbors.

His certificate certified to by the officers and members of his lodge of I. O. of O. F.

I, John C. Green, of the village of Tacony, in the City and County of Philadelphia, do hereby certify to the following facts: That early last Fall I took a violent cold, which settled on my lungs, and I had chills alternately with fever, pain in my right side, breast and shoulder-blades, with a distressing cough, and no expectoration. I kept getting worse until I took my bed. My appetite was gone, my bowels very irregular, fever and night sweats attended with a distressing cough, which was very tight; my flesh had nearly all gone, and I was so weak that I could scarcely raise my head from the pillow, and was truly an object of pity to behold. My friends had been sent for to see me die, and my sick bed was surrounded by kind and sympathizing neighbors who had come to witness my departure from this world.

When all rays of hope fled of my recovery, Dr. Conrad proposed to try SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, with a view of loosening my cough, and relieving me of the tough phlegm, and as a means of affording temporary relief, remarking at the same time, "that I was too far gone for the Syrup to be of any permanent benefit." My wife anxious for the relief of my intense sufferings, procured some of the Pulmonic Syrup. I found it afforded me relief, and continued using it. I could feel its healing influence upon my lungs.

Dr. Schenck was sent for. He came and examined my lungs with his respirometer. He found one lung nearly gone, but the other was sound. He said he could generally cure when one lung was diseased. I do honestly think that if I had not commenced using Dr. Schenck's Medicines I could not have lived another week. Sometimes my breath appeared almost gone. I continued to improve under its use, and my friends were much gratified to witness my unexpected improvement; many of my neighbors came to look at me as one raised from the dead.

My cough now became loose, and I felt something break where I had the pain in my breast, and I discharged large quantities of yellow matter. I have for weeks discharged and raised a spit-box full of matter every day, with hard lumps like grains of something. My bowels now became regular and natural, and my appetite was so far improved that I could scarcely refrain from eating too much. My strength improved, and I regained my strength.

I feel now as well as I ever did in my life, and can do as much work. I cannot run or go up steps as fast as I used to, for one lung is partially gone and contracted, but it seems to me, like a man that has lost an eye, the other is the stronger. I feel now as though, when I see a person with a bad cough, or look as though they had consumption, that I must go to them, and persuade them to go at once to Dr. Schenck and get examined, for perhaps they were like me, and had one good lung, and can be cured. I am this day a living testimony of the great efficacy of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. For fear those that read this may think as I did, that all certificates were made up to deceive the poor afflicted, I subjoin the certificate of my physician, and also a number of well-known inhabitants of Tacony, who saw me at different times during my disease, and never expected to see me restored. I also append the certificate of the brothers of Mystic Lodge, No. 270, I. O. of O. F., who kindly watched over me, and fully believed they would consign my remains to the tomb; but, thanks to Dr. Schenck for his invaluable Pulmonic Syrup, my life has been spared, and I am permitted to make the foregoing statement for the benefit of suffering mankind.

I reside at Tacony, and am well known by most of the people there, and will be gratified to have any person call upon me and learn more particulars of the great virtues of this medicine. JOHN C. GREEN.

The subscribers, members of the Mystic Lodge, No. 270, I. O. of O. F., of Holmesburgh, Penn., do hereby certify that we know John C. Green, who is a member in good standing in Lodge No. 270, I. O. of O. F., was dangerously ill, with a low pulmonary consumption, last winter, so that they gave him up to die; that he is now fully restored to perfect health, and they believe his recovery was produced by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

We believe this certificate is correct in every particular.

HENRY NEFF,
ALFRED ROBINSON, P. G.,
ABRAHAM ARTHUR, P. G.,
J. M. OSMAN, N. G.,
JOSHUA RHINEMORE,
JACOB WATERMAN, Jr.,
JAMES C. CALVER.

The undersigned, residents of Tacony, eight miles above Philadelphia, being well acquainted with John C. Green, and the circumstances attending his case, feel impelled from a deep sense of imperative duty to make universally known to the public his entire recovery from the very last stages of Pulmonary Consumption. So entirely helpless was his condition—having been but a brief period since in that rapidly sinking and emaciated state—as to utterly preclude, in the opinion of his physician and friends, who watched by his bedside, all hopes of even a temporary recovery and restoration to his present robust health. Thus the careful use of your invaluable specific, the Pulmonic Syrup, makes it, in our belief, under the circumstances of his previous prostrate, not to say, dying, condition, one of the most startling results that the whole annals of medical skill or science can produce. It deserves to be imperishably recorded to your credit, and secures to you—the greatest discoverer of an infallible cure for this hitherto remediless disease—a lasting monument and a world-wide reputation in the healing art, that no time may either diminish or destroy. Having witnessed Mr. Green's distressing struggle and suffering from a continual cough, superadded to the other symptoms consequent upon or attending the last stages of a pulmonary disease; and, moreover, it being so generally believed by his numerous friends that no human power could relieve or protract his life, much less restore him back again to his former health, we feel it thus our duty to give our unqualified testimony of Mr. Green's perfect recovery, by means of the exclusive use of your wonderful Syrup; and we should indeed rejoice, if we could be made the humble instruments of relief and cure to others who may be so unfortunate as to be similarly afflicted.

DIABETES.
STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES
AFTER URINATING.
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS,
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS

have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.

CONSTITUTION WATER.

has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.

DIURETICS

irritate and drench the kidneys, and, by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and confirmed disease.

We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful for curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.

IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING.

Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little, and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be speedily cured by the Constitution Water.

That disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by the medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Imperfect Memory, Wakefulness, Flashes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude and Dimness of Vision.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION,

Which, in the unmarried female, is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually losses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

REDEMPTION OF $2,000,000
SOLDIERS' SUBSTITUTE BOUNTY FUND BONDS OF THE COUNTY OF NEW-YORK,
PAYABLE JUNE 1, 1864.

Notice is hereby given that the "Soldiers' Substitute Bounty Fund Bonds," of the County of New York, becoming due and payable June 1, 1864, with the interest thereon, will be paid on that day on the presentation of said bonds at this office.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF $2,000,000.

PROPOSALS FOR $2,000,000 SOLDIERS' SUBSTITUTE BOUNTY REDEMPTION BONDS.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until SATURDAY, May 28, 1864, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the whole or any part of the sum of $2,000,000 of "Soldiers' Substitute Bounty Redemption Bonds" of the County of New-York, authorized by Chapter 7, and as amended by Chapter 11 of the laws of 1864, and by an ordinance of the Board of Supervisors, approved May 4, 1864.

Said bonds will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of May and November in each year, and the principal will be redeemable in successive annual installments of $500,000 each, commencing on the first day of November, 1873.

The proposals will state the amount of bonds desired, and the price per one hundred dollars thereof; and the persons whose proposals are accepted will be required to deposit with the County Treasurer (at the Broadway Bank,) on Wednesday, the 1st day of June, 1864, the sums awarded to them respectively.

On presenting to the Comptroller the receipts of the County Treasurer for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive Bonds for equal amounts of the par value of the sums awarded to them bearing interest from June 1, 1864.

Each proposal should be sealed and indorsed, "Proposals for Soldiers' Substitute Bounty Redemption Bonds," and enclosed in a second envelope addressed to the Comptroller.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids, if considered necessary to protect or promote the interests of the County.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR $300,000
CENTRAL PARK IMPROVEMENT FUND STOCK OF 1876.

Sealed proposals will be received at the Comptroller's Office until TUESDAY, the 17th day of May, 1864, at 1 o'clock P. M., when the same will be publicly opened for the whole or any part of the sum of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars of the Central Park Improvement Fund Stock, authorized by Chapter 85 of the Laws of 1860, and by an Ordinance of the Common Council, approved by the Mayor April 25, 1860.

The said Stock will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable quarter-yearly, and the principal will be redeemed November 1, 1876.

The proposals will state the amount of Stock desired, and the price per one hundred dollars thereof; and the persons whose proposals are accepted will thereupon be required to deposit with the Chamberlain of the City the sums awarded to them respectively.

On presenting to the Comptroller the receipts of the Chamberlain for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive certificates for equal amounts of the par value of the Stock, bearing interest from the dates of payments.

Each proposition should be sealed and indorsed "Proposals for Central Park Improvement Fund Stock," and inclosed in a second envelope, addressed to the Comptroller.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids, if the interests of the Corporation require it.
MATTHEW T. BRENNAN, Comptroller.

ARMY SUPPLIES.
OFFICE OF COMMISSARY OF SUBSISTENCE, No. 4 STATE-ST., NEW-YORK, May 9, 1864.

Sealed Proposals (in duplicate) will be received by the undersigned until 4 o'clock P. M., on THURSDAY, the 12th instant, for supplying, for the use of the United States Army, SUBSISTENCE STORES, to be delivered in New-York or Brooklyn, as follows, viz.:

200,000 pounds of RICE, in clean, good, stout oak barrels like samples to be seen at this office.

38,126 GALLONS of the best quality of PURE VINEGAR, made only from Cider or Whisky, free from all foreign acids and injurious substances, and of a uniform strength, the Whisky Vinegar taking thirty-five grains bicarbonate of potash to neutralize one ounce troy, the Cider Vinegar as near the same strength as may be. To be put up in half-barrels of twenty-two gallons capacity, like samples at this office. Each proposal must state distinctly the kind and quality of Vinegar offered, and the kind of package.

500,000 pounds Turks' Island SALT, in sacks.

2,000 gallons of superior BOURBON WHISKY; barrels to be of good seasoned white oak staves and heads; to have twelve wooden and four strong iron hoops, heads and iron hoops painted. Returns required from a gauger and inspector to be named by the undersigned.

108,896 gallons of RECTIFIED WHISKY, to be full first-proof, according to the United States Customhouse standard. Barrels to be of good seasoned white oak staves and heads; to have twelve wood and four strong iron hoops, heads and iron hoops painted. Returns required as above.

POTATOES—Such quantity as may be required during the month of June, 60 pounds to the bushel, in good, ordinary, well-coopered barrels.

Separate proposals, in duplicate, must be made for each article enumerated, and bidders may propose for the whole or any part of each.

Samples of all the articles must be delivered with the proposals, and referred to therein. Samples of rice and salt must be in neat boxes of cardboard or tin, fully labelled, and not in paper parcels.

A printed copy of this advertisement must be attached to each proposal, and the proposals must be specific in complying precisely with all the terms. Each bid, to have consideration, must contain the written guarantee of two responsible names, as follows:

"We, the undersigned, hereby guarantee that should all or any part of the above bid be accepted, it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and conditions; also, that a written contract, with bonds to the amount of one-fourth of the value of the stores proposed to be furnished, shall be executed, if required."

The seller's name, place of business, and the date of purchase, as well as the name of contents, with gross, tare and net weights, and shipping marks to be hereafter designated, must be plainly marked on every package. All other old marks must be obliterated.

All the stores will be carefully inspected before their delivery, and compared with the retained samples. Returns of weights, signed by a professional Public Weigher, must be furnished.

Payment, as heretofore, to be made in such funds as may be furnished by the United States.

Contractors are expected to hold their goods, without expense to the United States, until required for shipment.

Blanks for Proposals will be furnished at this office, which must be inclosed in an envelope addressed to the undersigned, and indorsed "Proposals for Subsistence Stores."

At the Alleghany Arsenal, 5,000 sets.
At the St. Louis Arsenal, 3,000 sets.

These sets of Horse Equipments are to be furnished complete, except the horse-brush, curry-comb, lariat, picket-pin link, nose-bag, spurs and straps, and blanket. The curb bridle reins are to be ⅞ of an inch wide. The curb, watering bridle, sweat leathers, bits, the malleable iron, hardware, and stirrups, are to conform strictly in pattern and finish to those deposited at the Arsenals above-named. The trees are to be of the regulation pattern, assorted sizes—not less than 3½ inches between the bars on the inside of the pummel, the side bars of hard white-wood, or beech; the pummels and canties of beech, well put together; all the irons one-tenth of an inch thick, and all let into the wood; to be covered with the best slaughtered cow-hide; all other covering to be rejected. The trees are to be subject to inspection during all stages of their manufacture, and if deemed necessary, the leather to be inspected before cutting; but the final inspection will be made at the Arsenals where delivered.

Deliveries must be made in lots of not less than one-tenth per week of the whole number contracted for; the first delivery to be made on the 18th day of June, 1864.

Failure to make deliveries at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the number he may fail to deliver at that time.

No bids will be considered from parties other than regular manufacturers, and such as are known to this Department to be fully competent to execute in their own shops the work proposed for.

Bidders will inclose with their bids the written acknowledgments of their sureties, over their own signatures.

Each party obtaining a contract will be obliged to enter into bonds, with approved sureties, for its faithful execution.

Upon the award being made, successful bidders will be notified, and furnished with forms of contract and bond.

The department reserves the right to reject any or all bids if not deemed satisfactory.

Proposals will be addressed to "Brig.-Gen. George D. Ramsay, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and will be indorsed "Proposals for Horse Equipments."
GEO. D. RAMSAY,
Brig.-Gen., Chief of Ordnance.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

TO CAPITALISTS.

An interest in a Foundry and Machine-shop in Saint Louis, Mo., for sale. A party with not less than $25,000, (a larger amount could be used to advantage,) desiring to invest in an old and well established foundry and machine-shop, in Saint Louis, Mo., now doing a large and profitable business, can purchase an interest therein, by addressing the undersigned, who will give all necessary information. By action of the State Convention, Missouri is now a free State, and her immense mineral wealth, developed by free labor, will make her one of the richest States in the West. The abundance of iron and coal in the immediate vicinity of the city, makes this a very desirable investment.

PROPOSALS FOR FORAGE.
CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON DEPOT, Dec. 8, 1863.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited by the undersigned for supplying the United States Quartermaster's Department, at Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., Alexandria and Fort Monroe, Va., or either of these places, with Hay, Corn, Oats and Straw.

Bids will be received for the delivery of 5,000 bushels of corn or oats, and 50 tons of hay or straw, and upward.

Bidders must state at which of the above-named points they propose to make deliveries, and the rates at which they will make deliveries thereat, the quantity of each article proposed to be delivered, the time when said deliveries shall be commenced, and when to be completed.

The price must be written out in words on the bids.

Corn to be put up in good stout sacks, of about two bushels each. Oats in like sacks, of about three bushels each. The sacks to be furnished without extra charge to the Government. The hay and straw to be securely baled.

The particular kind or description of oats, corn, hay, or straw, proposed to be delivered, must be stated in the proposals.

All the articles offered under the bids herein invited, will be subject to a rigid inspection by the Government Inspector before being accepted.

Contracts will be awarded from time to time to the lowest responsible bidder, as the interest of the Government may require, and payment will be made when the whole amount contracted for shall have been delivered and accepted.

The bidder will be required to accompany his proposal with a guarantee, signed by two responsible persons, that in case his bid is accepted, he or they will, within ten days thereafter, execute the contract for the same, with good and sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to the amount of the contract, to deliver the forage proposed in conformity with the terms of this advertisement; and in case the said bidder should fail to enter into the contract, they to make good the difference between the offer of said bidder and the next lowest responsible bidder, or the person to whom the contract may be awarded.

The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of a United States District Attorney, Collector of Customs, or any other officer under the United States Government, or responsible person known at this office.

All bidders will be duly notified of the acceptance or rejection of their proposals.

The full name and Post-office address of each bidder must be legibly written in the proposal.

Proposals must be addressed to Brigadier-General D. H. Rucker, Chief Depot Quartermaster, Washington, D. C., and should be plainly marked "Proposals for Forage."

Bonds, in the sum equal to the amount of the contract, signed by the contractor and both of his guarantors, will be required of the successful bidder or bidders upon signing the contract.

Blank forms of bids, guarantees and bonds, may be obtained upon application at this office.

FORM OF PROPOSAL.
(Town, County, and State,) ———— (Date) ————

I, the subscriber, do hereby propose to furnish and deliver to the United States, at the Quartermaster's Department, at ————, agreeably to the terms of your advertisement, inviting proposals for forage, dated Washington Depot, Dec. 8, 1863, the following articles, viz.:

ORDNANCE OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, May 4, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office until TUESDAY, the 24th day of May, 1864, for 8-inch Columbiad Shell, to be delivered in the following quantities at the undernamed Arsenals, viz.:

At the Watertown Arsenal, Massachusetts, 10,000 8-inch shell.
At the Watervliet Arsenal, New-York, 10,000 8-inch shell.
At the New-York Arsenal, Governor's Island, New-York, 15,000 8-inch shell.
At the Alleghany Arsenal, Pittsburgh, 10,000 8-inch shell.
At the St. Louis Arsenal, Missouri, 5,000 8-inch shell.

These projectiles are to be made of the kind of metal, and inspected after the rules laid down in the Ordnance Manual, the tensile strength of the iron to be not less than 14,000 pounds per square inch. Drawings can be seen at any of the United States Arsenals. The projectiles are to be inspected at the foundry where cast, and are to be delivered at the Arsenals free of charge for handling and transportation. Deliveries must be made at the rate of not less than one-tenth (1-10th) of the whole amount contracted for per week. The first delivery to be made on the 15th day of June, 1864.

Failure to make deliveries at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the number he may fail to deliver at that time.

Bidders will state explicitly the Arsenal or Arsenals where they propose to deliver, and the number of projectiles they propose to deliver at each place, if for more than one.

No bids will be considered from parties other than regular founders, or proprietors of works, who are known to this department to be capable of executing the work proposed for. Should any party obtaining a contract offer shells other than those cast in his own foundry, they will be rejected, and the contract rendered null and void.

Bidders will inclose with their bids the written acknowledgments of their sureties over their own signatures.

Each party obtaining a contract will be obliged to enter into bond with approved sureties for its faithful execution.

Upon the award being made, successful bidders will be notified, and furnished with forms of contract and bond.

The department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if not deemed satisfactory.

Proposals will be addressed to "Brig.-Gen. George D. Ramsay, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and indorsed "Proposals for 8-inch Columbiad Shells."
GEORGE D. RAMSAY,
Brig.-Gen., Chief of Ordnance.

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 61 Franklin-st. Call, send, or write.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. Hunter's Red Drop cures venereal diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury; but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless this remedy is used. This is what he claims for it; and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known that scientific men, in every department of medical knowledge, begin to appreciate it; for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, since 1834. Eight separate rooms and a private entrance. A ten cent bill will secure the Monitor of Health by return mail.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 61 Franklin-st., between Broadway and Elm-st., New-York.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR GOUT AND RHEUMATISM.

All sufferers from the above complaints, either of recent or long standing, are advised to use Blair's Gout and Rheumatic Pills. They can be relied upon as the most safe and effectual remedy ever offered to the public, and have been universally used in Europe for many years with the greatest success.

Prepared by PROUT & HARSANT, No. 229 Strand, London, England; and sold by their Agents, F. C. WELLS & CO., 115 Franklin-st., and by most Druggists. Her Majesty's Commissioners have authorized the name and address of "Thomas Prout, No. 229 Strand, London," to be impressed upon the Government stamp affixed to each box of the genuine medicine.

AFFLICTED RESTORED—IGNORANCE EXPOSED—FALLACIES UNMASKED.—Highly important to both sexes, married or single, in health or disease. Dr. LARMONT'S Paris London and New-York Medical Adviser and Marriage Guide, (80th edition, 400 pages, nearly 100 anatomical illustrations,) upon Debility, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Sexual Diseases, European hospital practice, the Author's unequaled Paris and London treatment, &c. All should purchase this original work of the publisher, E. WARNER, No. 1 Vesey-st., for $1, or consult the Doctor, 173 Broadway, up stairs, New York, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. "We concur with other papers in recommending Dr. Larmont and his work."—Courrier des Etats Unis, German die Reform, Dispatch, Staats Zeitung, Atlas, Medical Review.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED AND THOSE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED.—Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, whose valuable book entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family, with full instructions for restoring the monthly sickness. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canadas, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. For sale by E. WARNER, at No. 1 Vesey-st., (Astor House,) No. 18 Ann-st. and No. 13 Court-st., Boston.

ADVICE TO MARRIED OR SINGLE LADIES, who require a safe and certain remedy for removing obstructions, from whatever cause. Can rely upon the celebrated INFALLIBLE FRENCH FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. No. 1, price $1 a box, to restore the monthly sickness in forty-eight hours, if of short standing; but obstinate cases, of long standing, may require No. 2, which are four degrees stronger than No. 1, and can never fail, are safe and healthy, price $5 a box. Sold at No. 127½ Liberty-st., or sent by mail, with full instructions, by addressing Box No. 2,359 N. Y. Post-office.

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE —Containing nearly 300 pages, and 150 fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the sexual organs, in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on self-abuse, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by the report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent, free of postage, to any address on receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage-stamps. Address Dr LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden-lane, Albany, N. Y.

ON A NEW AND SUCCESSFUL METHOD FOR THE CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA AND ITS RESULTS. Fourth Edition. Intended for Popular Use. By C. D. HAMMOND, M.D., formerly Professor of Special Anatomy in the Syracuse Medical College, N. Y. Price $1. WARNER, Publisher, No. 1 Vesey-st., N. Y.

The author may be consulted from 9 to 10, 1 to 3, and 7 to 9 evenings, at No. 31 East 27th-st.

DR. POWERS' PERIODICAL DROPS are designed for both married and single ladies, and are the very best thing known for the purpose, as they will bring on the monthly sickness in case of obstruction from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. ☞ Beware of imitations! Purchase directly of Dr. POWERS, 61 Franklin-st. N. Y.

EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., EDITOR OF the SCALPEL, attends exclusively to operative surgery and the more obscure diseases of the pelvic viscera, hernia, hemorrhoids, varicocele and fistula. No. 42 5th-av., between 10th and 11th. sts. Office hours from 8 to 9, 1 to 3, and 7 to 9 evenings.

THE ARMY AND NAVY.

U. S. NAVY
AND MARINE CORPS.
NEW-YORK COUNTY VOLUNTEER COMMITTEE, OFFICE NEW BUILDINGS, CORNER CHAMBERS-ST. AND BROADWAY.

5,000 RECRUITS WANTED
FOR THE NAVY AND MARINE CORPS.

COUNTY BOUNTY OF $200 AND $100, CASH DOWN FOR SAILORS,
AND
$300 FOR MARINES AND PRIZE MONEY.

THE UNITED STATES AUTHORITIES HAVING, in order to fill up the navy and Marine Corps, authorized the raising of recruits for that branch of the service, and guaranteed that recruits for the navy and Marine Corps shall be counted on the quotas of the places where they elect to be credited, the same as if they were recruits for the army, the County Volunteer Committee have resolved to pay recruits for the navy and Marine Corps the following bounty, cash down, upon their being duly mustered into the service:

|---|---|
| When enlisting for one year in the navy | $100 |
| When enlisting for more than one year in the navy | $200 |
| When enlisting for Marine Corps | $300 |

ANY PERSON BRINGING A RECRUIT FOR THE NAVY OR MARINE CORPS TO THIS OFFICE WILL RECEIVE A COUNTY PREMIUM OF $20.

PAY OF THE U. S. MARINE CORPS.

| Grade. | |
|---|---|
| First or Orderly Sergeant | $20 per month. |
| All other Sergeants, each | 17 per month. |
| Corporals | 13 per month. |
| Drummers and Fifers | 12 per month. |
| Privates in Barracks at Navy-yard | 13 per month. |
| Privates at Sea | 14 50 per month. |

Seamen and ordinary seamen, who will be shipped for two years, will receive, in addition to the above bounty of $200, three months' pay in advance, and three months' extra pay as Government bounty.

The rates of wages are as follows:

|---|---|
| First-class Firemen | $30 per month. |
| Second-class Firemen | 25 per month. |
| Coal-passers | 18 per month. |
| Seamen | 18 per month. |
| Ordinary Seamen | 14 per month. |
| Landsmen | 12 per month. |
| Boys | 10 per month. |

Boys will not be taken unless they are sixteen years of age, stout, in good health, and not below four feet eight inches in height. In all cases the consent of the parents or guardians must be first obtained.

The county bounty and the three months advance pay will be paid to all recruits, irrespective of class; and half-monthly pay can be left at home by application to the Paymasters of the vessels to which the recruits may be assigned.

All needful information can be obtained by applying at the Naval tent in the Park, and persons can be enlisted and sworn in at either of the following rendezvous, which are the only ones authorized by the Navy Department in this City.

All recruits thus enlisted, and receiving the bounties aforesaid, will be credited to the quota of the City and County of New-York.

THE GOLDEN CENSER.

This is the name of BRADBURY'S NEW SUNDAY-SCHOOL MUSIC BOOK. It will be ready the latter part of May or early in June. It will consist chiefly of new music and poetry for the Sunday-school, which has been in the course of preparation by Mr. Bradbury during the last two years. In newness, perhaps, and interest, it is believed that it will be fully up to the standard of the "Golden Chain," if not superior to it. Sunday-schools who have used the "Chain" and "Shower," and are ready for a new book, will not regret waiting a few weeks for the CENSER. Price, in paper covers, 25 cents single copy, or by the hundred, $20. In boards, 30 cents single copy, or $25 per hundred. Same prices for CHAIN and SHOWER. CHAIN and SHOWER, strongly bound in one volume, with board covers, $50 per hundred.

All of Mr. Bradbury's Sunday-school Music Books are for sale by the booksellers generally throughout the United States, and by

MUSICAL.

CHICKERING & SONS

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

Mr. GOTTSCHALK'S constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

STEINWAY & SONS'

GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms, Nos. 71 and 73 East 14th-st., between Union-square and Irving-place, New-York.

UNITED PIANO-FORTE MAKERS,

No. 86 Walker-st., New-York. All the stockholders being superior practical workmen, this Company is able to OFFER THEIR LARGE AND SPLENDID PIANOS AT LOWER PRICES THAN ANY OTHER FIRST-CLASS HOUSE. Every instrument guaranteed for five years.

PIANOS TO RENT.

HAZLETON BROTHERS,

OVERSTRUNG GRAND AND SQUARE
PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTURERS,
No. 99 Prince-st., a few doors west of Broadway, N. Y.

These Pianos have always received the first premium wherever they have been exhibited. A written guarantee for five years accompanies each piano. These instruments will be sold at prices to suit the times.

HAINES BROTHERS,

PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTURERS.
Warerooms No. 758 Broadway.
PIANOS TO LET AND FOR SALE
ON INSTALLMENTS.

MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS, FOR FAMILIES, CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS—Recognized by the musical profession as greatly superior to Harmoniums, Melodeons and all other small organs. [See our illustrated catalogue for explicit testimony to their superiority, from a majority of the most eminent organists in America.] Prices, $85 to $500 each.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—The great reputation which our Cabinet Organs have obtained, and the extensive demand for them, have induced dealers to advertise, in some cases, quite different instruments as Cabinet Organs, and in others to represent to purchasers that Harmoniums and other reed organs are the same thing. This is not true. The excellences of our Cabinet Organs, which have given them their high reputation, are the result not merely of the superiority of their workmanship, but also, in large measure, of essential differences in construction, which, being patented, cannot be imitated by other makers. From these arise their better quality and volume of tone and unrivaled capacity for expression. Warerooms in New-York, No. 7 Mercer-st.

MASON BROTHERS.

WATERS' CORAL HARP.—A NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL BOOK of 160 pages of beautiful Hymns and Tunes. It contains many gems, such as "Shall we Know Each Other There?" "Suffer Little Children to Come unto Me," "The Beautiful Shore," "Oh, 'tis Glorious," "Leave Me with My Mother," "He Leadeth Me Beside Still Waters," "The Lion of Judah," "Lord Give Us Faith," "Bury Me in the Morning, Mother," and ten pieces composed by the late Stephen C. Foster, which alone are worth more than the entire cost of the book. Price, Paper Covers, 25 cents; $20 per 100; Bound, 30 cents; $25 per 100; Cloth Bound, Embossed Gilt, 40 cents; $35 per 100. Mailed at the retail price. Published by

HORACE WATERS,
No. 481 Broadway, New-York.

100 NEW AND SECOND-HAND PIANOS, melodeons, Alexandre and cabinet organs to let, and rent allowed if purchased. Monthly payments received for the same. Second-hand pianos at great bargains for cash; price from $60 to $200. New seven-octave pianos, at $225, $250, $275, $300, and up to $700. One seven-octave second-hand grand piano, price $700 new, will be sold for $300, or rented for $30 per month. 10,000 sheets of music, a little soiled, at 1½ cents per page. Cash paid for second-hand pianos. HORACE WATERS, No. 481 Broadway.

NEW MUSIC.—"CHRIST WILL CARE FOR Mother Now," answer to "Who will Care for Mother Now?" This is one of the best songs we have published for a long time. Music by J. F. Weston. Price 30 cents.

CHORUS—Soon with angels you'll be marching,
With a crown upon your brow,
Free from care, and toil and danger,
Christ will care for mother now.

HORACE WATERS, Publisher, No. 481 Broadway.

PIRSSON'S PIANO-FORTES.—JAS. PIRSSON respectfully informs the public that he has reëstablished himself in the piano-forte business and invites attention to a fine stock of pianos at his warerooms, No. 478 Broadway, near Broome-st.

PIANO-FORTES OF EVERY VARIETY OF style and pattern, warranted of the best material and workmanship, and unsurpassed in strength and delicacy of tone, or elasticity of touch. Apply at manufactory of JAS. VAN RIPER, No. 179 Wooster-st., between Houston and Bleecker sts.

GEN. BUTLER'S COLUMN.

some of the sailors, and mines were found connecting with other torpedoes, which will be destroyed. The body of the rebel whom the gallant naval officer shot was examined, and letters found upon it, proving him to be engaged in the torpedo business. The name of the wretch was BURTON.

There was heavy firing a couple of hours since, about 6½ o'clock P. M., on our extreme left. I have ascertained that it was by HICKMAN'S Division, who had been sent to take possession of the railroad where the branch of the Richmond, Petersburgh and Weldon Road to City Point joins the main line. They met but little resistance, and the road is now held by us.

A force from Gen. GRAHAM'S mosquito fleet of army gunboats took possession this morning of a place called Port Walthall, on the Appomattox, about eight miles from Petersburgh. Three miles up the river is a rebel earthwork, mounting eight guns, we are told, which may be attacked to-morrow.

A negro who left Petersburgh at 11 this morning has come into our lines. He says that the place is defended by the militia entirely. Yesterday when the report reached there that the Yankees were landing at Wilson's Wharf and Fort Powhatan, the alarm bells were rung and the home guards assembled. A body of them was forthwith organized, and this morning they started out to beat back the invaders at those places down the river. Should this story of the negro be true, there is a fair probability of "bagging" these adventurous militiamen, now that HICKMAN has seized the railroad over which they were transported from Petersburgh in the direction of City Point.

I must stop writing. The dispatches must leave now or lose the mail. H. J. W.

The Blowing Up of the Gunboat Commodore Jones.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 9.

It is ascertained from private sources that every man on board the gunboat Commodore Jones was either killed or wounded with one exception. The man who exploded the torpedo was himself killed by persons on another vessel who had been watching his movements.

A detachment of sharpshooters sent ashore subsequently found on his person instructions from the rebel Secretary of the Navy regarding the torpedoes and their various locations. Several other men were found concealed in rifle-pits ready to perform similar work. They were promptly placed beyond the power of mischief.

BALTIMORE, Monday, May 9.

The following has been received from Fortress Monroe, dated May 8, 1864:

"The report that Petersburgh was taken on the afternoon of the 6th inst. was incorrect.

The Commodore Jones, a small navy gunboat, was destroyed by a rebel torpedo on the afternoon of the 6th inst. Most of the crew saved themselves by swimming ashore. This took place within twelve miles of Richmond.

Yesterday, the 7th inst., Gens. HECKMAN'S and BROOK'S Brigades advanced on the railroad leading from Petersburgh to Richmond, and after quite a severe skirmish with the enemy, they succeeded in destroying about three miles of the track and burning two important railroad bridges.

On the 6th inst., when our troops took possession of City Point, it was so complete a surprise that the enemy's signal corps, consisting of twenty-seven men, were all captured.

THE WOUNDED.

The Wounded not yet Received—Aid from Massachusetts and New-York.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 9.

Our wounded in the recent battles will not probably reach Washington until to-night, not yet having reached Rappahannock Station.

BOSTON, Monday, May 9.

In response to a call from the Surgeon-General at Washington, ten surgeons left this city last night to aid our wounded.

ALBANY, Monday, May 9, 1864.

Surgeon-General QUACKENBUSH was telegraphed from Washington to send on a number of Volunteer Surgeons to render their services in the present emergency. He at once responded to the request, and the following Surgeons left this morning for the army:

Dr. S. Oakley Vanderpool, Albany.
Dr. Gurdon Buck, New-York.
Dr. Stephen Smith, New-York.
Dr. Frank H. Hamilton, New-York.
Dr. Thomas M. Markoe, New-York.
Dr. William Detmold, New-York.
Dr. William P. Seymour, Troy.
Dr. Le Roy McLean, Troy.
Dr. Charles E. Simons, Troy.
Dr. S. G. Wolcott, Utica.
Dr. Edward H. Parker, Poughkeepsie.

A number of surgeons have likewise left from Brooklyn, but their names have not yet been received at the office of the Surgeon-General, and a large number from different parts of the State have likewise tendered their services.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO NEW-YORK TIMES

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 9.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH.

Maj.-Gen. FOSTER has been ordered to the command of the Department of the South.

A SERENADE TO THE PRESIDENT.

In a speech made by the President, to-night, in answer to a serenade, among other things he said: "In the absence of all details, I can say, so far as I know what events have occurred, that Gen. GRANT has not been jostled an iota from the object he set out to accomplish, and to-night he is pursuing undeviatingly the line which he designed to follow at starting."

THE TREASURY MATTERS.

All recent efforts to cast odium upon the Administration through absurd reports in regard to improprieties in the Treasury Department, have so far proved abortive. The special Congressional Committee of Investigation have been afforded all facilities for thorough search into affairs of the Bank-note Printing Bureau they desired. They will report that there is no over-issue of fractional currency, and that the method of printing bank notes by means of hydraulic pressure has proved a signal success, and a great saving to the Government over old methods. Not only will there be no imputations against Mr. CLARKE, but the committee, in common justice, will be constrained to indorse him.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 9—Midnight.

Lieut. JACKSON, First Michigan Cavalry, of Gen. GRANT'S Staff, arrived here this afternoon, with dispatches for the Secretary of War. He left headquarters Sunday, with a small escort, and reached Rappahannock Station the same night. The news he brings confirms the previous reports of the final success of our arms. On Thursday the enemy attempted their old game of massing their forces to break our lines, when a desperate conflict ensued, in which the Second Corps took a conspicuous part. In this day's fighting the enemy captured, it is reported, nearly all of two brigades, including their commanders, Gens. SEYMOUR and SHALER. LEE'S army is falling back. Transports for the wounded are now passing down the Potomac, destined for Aquia Creek.

A bearer of dispatches from Major-Gen. BUTLER to the President, arrived here this afternoon, and he subsequently made a statement in presence of the Joint Committee on the Conduct of the War and Senate Military Committee. He states that on Saturday last, BEAUREGARD, with 7,000 men, made a surprise attack upon Gen. BUTLER about ten miles from Richmond. So sudden and unexpected was the encounter that Gen. BUTLER himself narrowly escaped capture. Indeed his own orderly was captured within sixty yards of him. The command being in readiness, it quickly passed from the defensive to the offensive position and the enemy were most signally defeated. The bearer of dispatches gives it as his opinion that Gen. BUTLER, having already cut off BEAUREGARD, will be in Richmond at an early day, and before either LEE or GRANT can reach there.

Gov. CURTIN, accompanied by Suregon-Gen. KING and Col. BIDDLE ROBERTS, of his staff, arrived here to-night, to look after the Pennsylvania wounded in the recent battle. At a meeting of the Pennsylvania Relief Association to-night, Hon. J. N. MOREHEAD, of Pittsburgh, pledged his constituents good for $1,000, to a fund for care and relief of wounded Pennsylvania soldiers. Other Congressmen were invited to follow Mr. MOREHEAD'S example.

Although the details of Thursday's and Friday's fighting are not such as to warrant the belief that our victory is decisive, it is known that feelings in official circles are buoyant, and that the scraps of information received concerning operations since 5 o'clock Saturday P. M., when the last Press correspondents left the field, do much to brighten the aspect. LEE is believed, beyond a doubt, to be retreating, and all the indications betoken a vigorous pursuit.

Our cavalry had a successful fight at Stannardsville.

The wounded are coming to Fredericksburgh, whence most of them will probably be brought up on boats.

The President is understood to have said to-night, in praising the obstinacy with which GRANT had held his ground, that there had been no Commander of the Army of the Potomac before him who would not have recrossed the Rapidan after such a reception as the rebels gave him on Thursday and Friday.

We are not believed to have any advantage in prisoners, and it is not claimed that up to Saturday night there was much, if any, difference in our favor in killed and wounded.

A Speech from the President—Gen. Grant not Jostled from His Plans—Arrival of Wounded from Fredericksburgh—They are Fired upon by Bushwhackers and Citizens.

WASHINGTON, Monday, March 9.

A large number of persons, on short notice, assembled in front of the Executive mansion to-night, and, with the band of the Twenty-seventh Ohio Volunteers, now on their way to the field, complimented the President with a serenade.

The President appeared on the portico and made a brief speech, in which he said the honor extended was not so much, perhaps, to him, as to Gen. GRANT and the gallant officers and soldiers under his command. He was exceedingly gratified to know that Gen. GRANT had not been jostled from his plans, but was now on the line of movement according to the original design. While, however, we might rejoice at what had already been accomplished, much more remained to be done.

The proceedings, which were of short continuance, terminated with repeated cheers for the President, Gen. GRANT, and the army.

On Friday a number of slightly wounded men, who had been ordered to the rear, made their way to Fredericksburgh under an escort of fourteen armed men. On entering the town they were fired upon by the citizens with shot-guns, pistols and such other arms as were obtainable. They, however, succeeded in passing out, and proceeded to Aquia Creek, where they hastily constructed rafts, and moved some distance out into the stream. They finally hailed a gunboat, which took them on board and brought them to Washington to-night. They are now quartered at the Armory Hospital. The party number 280.

Fredericksburgh is now occupied by such of our forces as to insure respect on the part of the inhabitants.

This account is given by one of the wounded men.

On Saturday, between 400 and 500 of the slightly wounded, that is, those who could walk, started in one body to reach our lines. After holding a consultation they decided to pass through Fredericksburgh and from thence to Aquia Creek, that route affording the best chance for escape. Arriving at Fredericksburgh their formidable appearance, a portion of the men still carrying their muskets, prevented any serious offensive operations on the part of the rebels; but when attempting to cross the river, they were fired upon by a party of bushwhackers. These they speedily dispersed, but some 150 of the most seriously wounded turned back, and it is supposed rejoined the army. The remaining 280 succeeded in reaching Aquia Creek in safety, where, during the day they were taken off and brought to this City by the Government dispatch boat.

Six of the party who ventured upon an island in Aquia Creek were captured by a roving party of bushwhackers.

Three reporters who were captured by STUART'S men, succeeded in effecting their escape and joined the above party at Aquia Creek. Several reporters who attempted to reach our lines are still missing.

Among the killed are the following: Lieut.-Col. Burt, Third Maine; Maj. Gray, Fourth Maine; T. J. Whittemore, do.; M. Sweeny, Seventeenth Maine; T. Toole, do.; T. M. McIntyre do.; Sergt. Baker, do., Wm. Sibley. John Paerson. Sergt. Fanhour, Lieut. Doe. The Seventeenth Maine entered the fight with 450 men, and lost about 200. Jacob Bogart, Second New-Jersey; Capt. Eflin do.; Wm. Hagerson, Sixty-second Pennsylvania; Capt. Beck, do., missing. S, Clark and Lynch, of the Sixty-seventh New-York, were killed. Thomas Martin, Forty-fourth New-York, wounded; Jos. Sandman, do. do.; Geo. D. Phinney, Seventh Wisconsin, do.; G. W. Donnelson, do. do.; Geo. Mitchel, First Indiana, do.; Robert Wells, 76th New-York, do.; Joseph Bowen, 61st Pennsylvania, do.; H. Sleffy, 16th Michigan, do.; Geo. Raymond, 8th New-Jersey, do.; J. J. Nellis, 16th Michigan, do.; John Kane, 5th New-Jersey, do.; Wm. Edward, 10th New-York, do.; L. H. Rock, 121st New-York, do.; Wm. McDowell, 4th New-Jersey, do.

Among those killed in the battles of Thursday and Friday are: Col. LOMBARD, Fourth Michigan Regiment; Capt. S. F. JOHNSON, Forty-fourth New-York; Lieut.-Col. MERCER, One Hundred and Forty-seventh Pennsylvania; Lieut. ASHLEY, Tenth Massachusetts.

The following are wounded: Col. SHURTLIFF and Lieut. GRAVE, Tenth Massachusetts; Lieuts. MOORES and SEEKLEMAN, and Capt. FOX,, of the Forty-fourth New-York Volunteers.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Monday, May 9—6 P. M.

The six or seven trains that left here on Sunday morning for Rappahannock Station to bring on the wounded, have just returned to this station without accomplishing their errand of mercy. Not a wounded man has been brought there as yet. It appears that the ambulance train started forward, but was stopped by a rebel cavalry force at the Rapidan while the Engineer Corps were endeavoring to lay a pontoon bridge. The railroad to the Rappahannock has not been injured at all. We have still small detachments guarding the bridges to that point.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

Occupation of Dalton by Gen. Thomas.

LOUISVILLE, Monday, May 9.

An officer from the front reports that Gen. THOMAS occupied Dalton yesterday.

GEN. AVERILL'S EXPEDITION.

Arrival of Gen. Crook's Command at Princeton.

Twenty-five Hundred Rebels Retreat Leaving their Camp in Our Possession.

CINCINNATI, Monday, May 9.

The Gazette has a special dispatch from West Virginia, announcing the arrival of Gen. CROOK'S command at Princeton. This is a portion of Gen. AVERILL'S command, sent out to cut the Virginia and East Tennessee Railroad. The enemy, 2,500 strong, retreated, leaving their camp in our possession.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

The Rebel Ram in Possession of Albemarle Sound.

By the arrival of the steamer Louisa Moore at Fortress Monroe, from North Carolina, we learn that the rebel ram Albemarle, which captured Plymouth, is now in full possession of Albemarle Sound Friday last she was seen from Roanoke Island. There is no know knowing what movement she may make to attempt to take Roanoke Island and its black population, Newbern and other important points.

It is reported that an iron-clad from Fortress Monroe has arrived at Hatteras, and was on her way to meet the rebel ram. If this report is true we shall be able to hold our possessions in North Carolina.

Grave apprehensions existed among the inhabitants and business men, many of whom were leaving for places of safety.

Commodore MELANCTHON SMITH had arrived at Newbern, and taken command of the naval forces in North Carolina. Active and desperate work in the waters of that State was hourly expected.

LATER AND IMPORTANT.

DESTRUCTION OF THE RAM.

She is Attacked and Sunk by the Gunboat Sassacus.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 9.

Information has been received to-night that the rebel ram in Albemarle Sound has been attacked and suek by the United States steamer Sassacus.

Chamber of Commerce.

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this day at one o'clock to take some action in regard to the payment in gold of the interest due on the stocks of this State held by foreign creditors. An amount equal to $85,000 in currency is required, of which near one-third has been subscribed by a few patriotic men of this City.

Hubbel's Golden Bitters.

From the New-York Evening Express.

Many of the tonic preparations which are now giving universal satisfaction to the public were donated (to the fair) in large quantities; prominent in the list was a generous invoice of Golden Bitters, from the manufacturers, GEORGE C. HUBBEL & Co., of Hudson, N. Y., and whose warehouse is in the American Express Building, No. 55 Hudson-street, in this City. Although only recently introduced, the intrinsic value of this preparation has already produced a large demand, which is constantly increasing, and already promises fame and fortune to its energetic producers. That they not only understand the way to make a superior tonic drink; but that they have abundant business ability to let the public become fully aware of the fact has been amply demonstrated, in the seven or eight months just passed. During that period they have not only pursued a most liberal system of newspaper advertising; but every vacant fence curbstone, ferry-landing, even the rocks on the highway, have been embellished with large placards, "G—1863—B." "Nedlog Srettib," "Hubbel's Golden Bitters," and hundreds of others, which have become to New-Yorkers as familiar as household words. It is claimed that these Golden Bitters have many superior medicinal qualities, independent of the one they are mostly employed for—an appetitive power. For Dyspepsia, Heartburn, General Debility, and Prostration, as well as for females of quiet habits, these bitters are said to be of superior value. In order to illustrate how readily a good thing can be remuneratively brought out in these days of progress, it is only necessary to state the facts, that the fabrication of the Golden Bitters, already incurs the employment of over one hundred hands, and the capacity of the manufactory is equal to the production of ten thousand bottles per day; yet it is said that so great is the demand that these facilities will soon have to be largely increased. As a beverage, the Golden Bitters are extremely palatable, and those desiring a mild stimulant will undoubtedly find this an agreeable and beneficial one. While dealers only are supplied by the manufacturer, this bitters can be procured of Druggists, Grocers, at Hotels, Restaurants, etc., throughout the country, and even in the public drinking houses it is becoming a fashionable drink.

DEAFNESS CURED,
BY
Dr. Von Eisenberg.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 23 FORSYTH-ST., NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

DEAR SIR: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most skeptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing, or total deafness, to consult you immediately, as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be peurile; but as a measure of precaution, to induce all to call on you at once, without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 25th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

DR. STERLING'S AMBROSIA is a stimulating, oily extract of roots, barks and herbs. It will cure all diseases of the scalp and itching of the head, entirely eradicates dandruff, prevents the hair from falling out or turning prematurely gray, causing it to grow thick and long. It is entirely different from all other preparations, and can be relied on.

H. H. STERLING & CO. have established their manufactory of Ambrosia at No. 121 Liberty-st.

Dr. H. H. STERLING has opened reception rooms for the examination and treatment of the scalp and hair, and also for the sale of Ambrosia, at No. 575 Broadway.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES KNOWN AS
HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS,
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
a positive and Specific Remedy for Diseases of the BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

H

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For weaknesses arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse, attended with the following symptoms:

|---|---|
| Indisposition to Exertion, | Loss of Power, |
| Loss of Memory, | Difficulty of Breathing, |
| Weak Nerves, | Trembling, |
| Horror of Disease, | Wakefulness, |
| Dimness of Vision, | Pain in the Back, |
| Hot Hands, | Flushing of the Body, |
| Dryness of the Skin, | Eruptions on the Face, |
| Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, | Pallid Countenance, |

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow

IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS.

In one of which the patient may expire. Who can say they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION!

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION ONCE AFFECTED BY ORGANIC WEKNESS

requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

E

FEMALES! FEMALES! FEMALES!
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females, the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularities, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus, Loucorrhea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

See symptoms above.

NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

L

Take no Balsam, Mercury or Unpleasant Medicines, for unpleasant and Dangerous Diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES SECRET DISEASES

in all their stages, at little Expense; little or no change of Diet; no Inconvenience, AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling POISONOUS, DISEASED AND WORN-OUT MATTER.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid HEAVY FEES to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and,

PERHAPS, AFTER MARRIAGE.

M

USE HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For all affections and diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing

IN MALE OR FEMALE,

From whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,
AND IT IS CERTAIN
TO HAVE THE
DESIRED EFFECT
IN ALL DISEASES
FOR WHICH
IT IS RECOMMENDED.

B

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!
HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.
SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the blood, and attacks the sexual organs, linings of the nose, ears, throat, windpipe and other mucus surfaces, making its appearance in the form of ulcers. Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of sarsaparilla.

O

HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

an excellent lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection in diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.
